WELCOME FOR POPE PAUL — Workmen erect welcoming arch for Pope Paul VI at spot between Amman and Jerusalem, midway where St. John baptized Christ. Sign in foreground points to the spot, where the Pope will stop on first day of his pilgrimage.

Pope Paul Set To Launch His Journey to Holy Land

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI came today to the eve of his history-making pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Throughout the Vatican, last-minute details of the papal trip were being attended to.

At Rome's Fiumicino Airport, the new four-engine DC8 that will carry the Pope to Amman, Jordan, Saturday was readied for its final test flight.

The Jordanians hung the ancient walls of Jerusalem's Old City with flags. Jordan's government called out a fourth of troops, to patrol the papal routes.

Wing Flap Said Lost in This Vicinity

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A B47 Stratofort made it back to its Lockbourne Air Force Base all safe Thursday night — but hardly sound.

Base officials said today the plane lost a section of a wing flap 13 feet in length and 3 feet wide, somewhere about 10 miles southwest of Lockbourne.

The plane normally carries a crew of three.

The approximate location of the lost wing flap would place it between Ashville and Darbyville in Pickaway County.

Air Force officers said they would appreciate it if finders of the wing section would return it to the base.

Ohio Mineral Lode Hits $400 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio had $400 million worth of mineral production during 1963, according to the Division of Geological Survey.

Ohio continues to lead the nation, according to the division, in output of clays and lime. Stone, sand and gravel, and salt are other major Buckeye products, ranking ahead of the more publicized oil and gas income.

Mineral production was reported in 87 of the 88 counties—all but Fulton—with increased values reported from 47. Harrison, Belmont, Lake and Summit counties, the leaders, accounted for more than $100 million among them.

Sheppard's Fiancee To Attend Hearing

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ariane Tebbenjohanns, 34-year-old German fiancee of convicted wife-slayer Dr. Sam Sheppard, says she plans to attend his preliminary parole hearing in Columbus Jan. 15.

Sheppard is serving a second-degree murder sentence for the 1954 bludgeoning slaying of his wife, Marilyn, in their Bay Village home. He becomes eligible for parole in 1965.

USE OF FORCE BAN ASKED

Ohio Governor OKs Favorite GOP Son Tag

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Republican Committee went into today's luncheon meeting with one of its main problems, if it ever existed, greatly simplified.

Gov. James A. Rhodes' statement Thursday that he would accept an offer of Ohio "favorite son" status for the national party convention this summer answered in advance a question the committee was expected to ask.

Informed sources said the party chiefs would take Rhodes up on his availability for the leadership of the 58-vote Ohio delegation to the presidential nominating convention in San Francisco.

Rhodes was not expected to attend the luncheon today. He planned to leave for Port Clinton on an industrial development mission at about the time of the state committee session.

But the governor's statement figured to blunt any possible debate among state committeemen over what attitude they should assume officially concerning Sen. Barry Goldwater-R-ARIZ. — provided Goldwater's promised announcement on his plans today was that he would seek the presidential nomination.

State GOP leaders had said earlier that whatever Goldwater might say today wouldn't affect the Ohio committee session anyway.

Rhodes emphasized that his own decision should be taken in no way as evidence he is interested, at this time, in seeking higher office than the governorship. His term as chief executive has three years to go.

State Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss had a 3:30 p.m. press conference scheduled today to follow the closed luncheon meeting.

The committee was to endorse 12 candidates for delegate-at-large to be elected at the primary polls. The other 46 delegate candidates with official party backing will be chosen in congressional districts.

Chimpanzee Joins Human in Fight

DENVER (AP) — An angry 87-pound male chimpanzee broke open the gate of his cage at Denver Zoo Thursday and headed for a group of spectators including women and children.

Trainer Clyde L. Smith, 51, wrestled with the ape and was bitten severely on the arm.

Then Christie, 5-year-old female cage-mate of the male chimp, rushed out the gate and leaped onto the other ape.

Confused, the male chimp fled to a storage shed. An attendant killed him with a shotgun blast.

Smith said Christie probably wouldn't have helped anybody else.

He and his wife raised her in their home for three years before giving her to the zoo.

278 Raps Hit Castro

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Cuban Judicial Association in Exile said today it has sent to the Organization of American States a list of 278 alleged acts of aggression or subversion by Premier Fidel Castro.

LBJ Budget Seen at $100 Billion But Reduction in Red Ink Sought

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson's new budget will be in the neighborhood of a record $100 billion, but he hopes to cut red ink spending below the current level.

The budget estimate for fiscal 1965, disclosed Thursday night by a White House source, is less than anticipated. Still, it will be a new peak for government spending.

Soon after taking office Johnson suggested he would have difficulty keeping the spending total below $102.5 billion or $103 billion. He blamed unavoidable increases already authorized by Congress.

The reduced figure is in keeping with the economy drive he has called for since then.

Balanced against the $100 billion spending total for the government year that begins July 1 will be forecast revenues of more than $90 billion. Johnson will tell Congress that revenues on this scale are dependent on early enactment of an $11 billion tax cut retroactive to Jan. 1.

The combination of Johnson's spending and revenue predictions would yield an indicated deficit of less than $10 billion.

A year ago, the late President John F. Kennedy recommended fiscal 1964 spending of $98.8 billion, a new high. Kennedy forecast revenues of $86.9 billion and a deficit of $11.9 billion.

Johnson kept his economy campaign rolling Thursday. Postmaster General John A. Gronouski was called to the White House to confer with the President and then told a news conference his department planned some savings.

The postal payroll will be trimmed by 5,000 workers in the next six months, Gronouski said, and fund requests for expansion and modernization of facilities will be reduced from $43 million to $10 million.

The President also conferred with Robert C. Weaver, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, who later told newsmen the administration will send Congress a comprehensive housing bill calling for a significant step in the public housing program and expansion of Federal Housing Administration activities.

There also will be some brand new proposals, such as easy credit to help big subdivision developers put in water and sewer lines, and aid for low income families ousted by slum clearance activities.

Weaver indicated these would require relatively small spending hikes. Some can be financed out of existing programs, he said.

Goldwater Announces His Bid for Presidency

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater today declared himself a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Arizona conservative, ending months of speculation, made his declaration at his hilltop home overlooking Phoenix.

Goldwater, who turned 55 on New Year's Day and who long has been a spokesman for the conservative cause, broke the official news first to a group of Arizona Republican leaders at his home.

Sources close to the senator reported in advance of the declaration that Goldwater was said to feel he must formally enter the presidential race because of a groundswell of support and the hundreds of thousands of dollars raised by his conservative followers across the nation.

A Goldwater associate also said the senator plans to file for his third Senate term but that he will withdraw from that race if he wins the GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater's declaration today put him into the race with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, the only other announced GOP candidate, who already has been campaigning in New Hampshire where voters will ballot March 10 in the nation's first presidential primary.

The Goldwater camp said the senator also will launch a campaign in New Hampshire soon.

The conservative senator is said to have decided to seek to head the GOP ticket "because of the principles in which I am convinced that millions of Americans share my belief in those principles."

"I have decided to do this also because I have not heard from any announced Republican candidate a declaration of conscience, or political position that could possibly offer to the American people a clear choice in the next presidential election," Goldwater said.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is the only other declared candidate. He entered the race almost two months ago.

Goldwater said "I have withheld a decision until now not because of any attempt to be politically coy but because I have been giving every aspect of such a decision the most serious consideration."

"One of the great attributes of our American two-party system has always been the reflected differences in prin-ple," Goldwater said. "As a general rule one party has emphasized individual liberty and the other has favored the extension of government power."

"I am convinced that today the majority of the Republican party believes in the essential emphasis on individual liberty."

Declaring he is no "me too Republican," Goldwater said he will spell out in detail his position during the campaign ahead.

"I will not change my beliefs to win," he said. "I will offer a choice, not an echo. This will not be an engagement of personalities. It will be an engagement of principles."

Khrush Plan Limited to Small Claims

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has put to the nations of the world a proposal to sign an international agreement renouncing the use of force in settling territorial and frontier issues.

The message says the international agreement should contain four main provisions: First, a solemn undertaking by the parties not to resort to force to alter existing state frontiers;

Second, acknowledgment that the territories of states should not, even temporarily, be the object of any invasion, attack, military occupation or any other forcible measure directly or indirectly undertaken by other states for whatever political, economic, strategic, frontier, or any other considerations;

Third, a firm statement to the effect that neither differences in social and state systems, nor refusal to grant recognition or absence of diplomatic relations or any other pretexts may serve as a basis for the violation by one state of the territorial integrity of another;

Fourth, a commitment to solve all territorial disputes solely by peaceful means such as negotiations, mediation, conciliatory procedures, and also other peaceful means chosen by the parties concerned, in conformity with the United Nations Charter.

The Tass summary of the message added:

"The Soviet government is deeply convinced that an undertaking by states to settle territorial disputes by peaceful means only would go a long way toward putting international relations in order."

"It can be said with confidence that in the new situation created by the conclusion of an agreement on the renunciation of states of the use of force to settle territorial disputes it would be much easier to find a solution to other fundamental international problems. This applies above all to the problem of disarmament."

"The Soviet government has arrived at the conclusion that while continuing to work tirelessly for the solution of the problem of general and complete disarmament it would be useful simultaneously to redouble our efforts in eliminating acute frictions in relations between states and centers of tension."

Tass said Premier Khrushchev pointed to Formosa:

"This island since ancient times is a component part of the Chinese state. The unlawful occupation of Taiwan (Formosa) by American troops must be terminated. The island is an inalienable part of the People's Republic of China and would have been reunified with it long since were it not for the external interference of another state." (meaning the United States.)

Once Around Roundtown

MORE THAN 3,500 children visited Santa Claus at his headquarters on N. Court St. during the Christmas shopping season, according to John Fissell, chairman of the Jaycee committee that promoted Santa's appearance.

ONLY ONE minor accident was reported by city police this morning, despite extremely slippery conditions in some places. Officers said this week's sudden snow led to a single accident Wednesday, one yesterday and the one today. They commended local drivers for their caution.

IT'S STILL Christmas for Mrs. Valorie Minor, 320 Cedar Heights Road. Mrs. Minor today received a portable stereo record player, 100 stereo record albums and an electric clock as a winner in a national contest sponsored by a record club.

Red Viet Cong Trap Rangers

Battalion Handed Serious Setback

BEN SUC, Viet Nam (AP)—A battalion of South Vietnamese rangers waded through brush and grass for a surprise assault on a heavy concentration of Communist guerrillas.

As the rangers crossed the Saigon River, 30 miles northwest of the capital, they encountered only small arms' fire. It looked like a sure government victory over the Viet Cong.

Instead, the Communists sprung a trap, and for six hours threatened the rangers with annihilation. Four rangers were killed, 17 were wounded, including a U.S. sergeant, and 30 still have not made it back to camp.

Only the Rangers' superb fighting ability and training in the same tactics used by the Viet Cong averted a disaster, U.S. military advisers said after the action on New Year's Eve.

Target of the surprise attack was a Viet Cong battalion in Binh Duong Province.

The rangers crossed the Saigon River without incident. When the Communists put up heavier resistance, the rangers counterattacked, forcing the guerrillas back and swarming over their foxholes and entrenchments.

But the retreat obviously was meant to draw in the advancing rangers. From dug-in positions, the guerrillas opened a barrage of fire on the rangers, who were outnumbered 2-1.

The rangers tried to encircle the Viet Cong but lacked enough men.

As the rangers retreated, a dozen mortars opened fire from across the river. The Communists had taken over the foxholes and trenches between the rangers and the river.

Rhodes To Order Home Inspections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes is expected to issue an order permitting the State Health Department to make emergency inspection of the electrical wiring in all 1,200 nursing and rest homes in Ohio.

The governor promised prompt action toward this end Thursday, and an aide said it probably would take the form of a directive allowing the Health Department to issue emergency regulations for such inspections.

Rhodes' statement follows up his appraisal of State Fire Marshal Fred Rice's report on the Nov. 23 Fitchville fire in which 63 patients died. Rhodes called the report comprehensive.

Weather Beacon Gets Its Wires All Crossed

KANSAS CITY (AP)—If you believed the weather beacon atop an office building Thursday night, the forecast was for clear, stormy, snowy, clear, stormy, snowy.

The beacon, which indicates those conditions with green, red and white lights—in that order—was flashing them in sequence.

It was an electrical mix-up—but not as bad as the one a few years ago when on a hot summer night the light indicated snow.

Planes Collide In Xenia Sky

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Two planes, believed to be Air Force trainers, collided high in the air today and crashed, spreading debris over a large area of Greene County, according to the Ohio Highway Patrol.

There were no reports of injuries but one of the planes crashed close to Beaver Creek High School, the patrol said.

Man, Wife Accused

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police have jailed James E. Young, 32, and his wife, Glenda, 26, in connection with the slaying of his elderly father.

News of World in Brief

VACAVILLE, Calif. (AP) — If a convict can survive as a Little League umpire, he has a good chance of readjusting to society.

That's the thinking behind a program at the California Department of Corrections facility here, which is experimenting with a one-year program to prepare convicted violent criminals for parole by testing them in a variety of demanding and stressful jobs.

Umpiring Little League games is part of the stress. "There's nothing tougher," says program director Werner J. Einstadter. "A Little League umpire hasn't got a friend, no matter what decision he makes. He can't win either way."

Unless he holds his temper and wins parole.

NEW YORK (AP) — The problem: What to do with old automobiles abandoned in city streets. There were 13,600 last year.

One solution: Dump them in the Atlantic Ocean off Long Island where they'd make homes for fish — as wrecks do — and perhaps improve the fishing.

Commissioner Frank J. Lucia of the Department of Sanitation said Thursday his idea may get serious consideration unless the price of scrap increases. Junk cars, bring $5 each, C.O.D.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The entire Bible is being read nearly nonstop over Newark radio station WFME-FM.

It started at 6 a.m. Jan. 1. It will continue for 18 hours each day, with time out for a Sunday morning church service, until about 6 p.m. Monday. Everything else was canceled, including the news.

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — The Kennedy brothers, Robert and Edward, had a ski race and Robert won by 1 of a second.

Robert, U.S. attorney general, was teamed with Tom Corcoran, a former Olympic skier, in the doubles competition on Colorado's Aspen Mountain. Edward, U.S. senator from Massachusetts, had Andrea Mead Lawrence, winner of two Olympic gold medals, for his partner in the giant slalom.

The brothers have been vacationing in Aspen since Dec. 26. They leave for Washington Saturday.

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle will make an official visit to Mexico next March and may meet with President Johnson before returning home.

The French president told newsmen he probably will stop in Martinique and Guadeloupe, French islands in the West Indies, en route to Mexico. Asked if Johnson would take advantage of the trip to meet him on one of the islands, De Gaulle replied: "I cannot answer you on that."

FORTO RONCO, Switzerland (AP) — Novelist Erich Maria Remarque, 65, says he had a slight indisposition but is feeling better.

Speaking through a member of his staff at his villa here, the writer insisted his recent illness was not serious, as had been reported. Remarque declined to identify the illness. He is believed to have a heart weakness.

Remarque is author of "All Quiet on the Western Front" and other books.

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston has appealed to the "little people, like you and me" to contribute to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library to be built at Harvard University.

Writing in the Pilot, publication of the Boston archdiocese the longtime friend of the late President said "I don't know any wealthy people to whom I could appeal for substantial funds for this great project."

The library will house Kennedy's papers.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — President Arturo Illia has refused to accept the resignation of Defense Minister Leopoldo Suarez so he can fight a duel with ousted Air Force Secretary Martin Cairo.

Cairo challenged Suarez New Year's Day after Illia fired him for refusing to accept economy measures recommended by the defense minister and the president. Cairo claimed his "dignity and honor" were injured.

MADRID (AP) — Spanish official sources say Jose Marcia Garcia Lopez, 32, counselor of the Cuban Embassy in Madrid, has requested political asylum in Spain. Garcia Lopez had served in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's embassy in Peking before coming here in 1961.

ADEN (AP) — Police are hunting for gunmen who tried to kill Labor Minister Ali Salem Thursday. It was the third act of violence against officials within a month. Salem escaped injury, but two companions were wounded by bullets fired from a passing car near Aden's civil airport.

Electrical Outage Mystery Is Solved

MEMPHIS (AP) — The city utilities division got a call from a customer who said that come sundown each day, his lights in the house would come on automatically and the radio would start playing.

Just the reverse in the morning; nothing electrical would work all day long, he said.

A division clerk said the customer's service wire had been tapped to a street light circuit which is fed electricity only during the hours of darkness.

Court Says

First order after Graham's complaint.

At the commission hearing in Greene County Common Pleas Court, Geger maintained that he did not have the necessary training to cut Negroes' hair. Judge Crawford also commented: "It is too well settled for argument that the legislature is fully empowered to legislate against racial discrimination in places of public accommodation."

"When an owner or proprietor opens up his property or business for use by the public, he subjects it and himself to certain rights in his clients or customers."

"Ordinarily, the law does not undertake to govern or regulate a citizen in the conduct of his strictly private business. In matters of more private concern, he is free to deal with whom he pleases. However, there are certain classes of business in the management and conduct of which the general public also has an interest."

"We find no constitutional right in Geger which is being violated. But unless the cease and desist order of the Civil Rights Commission is enforced the rights of others will be denied."

Film Tycoon Ends His U.S. Citizenship

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — John Huston, American-born film producer, became an Irish citizen today. By so doing he renounced his U.S. citizenship.

The son of Walter Huston, who has carved a name in the film world as important as that of his famous father, signed the official document that made him an Irish citizen in the office of Justice Minister Charles Haughey.

"I've been playing around with this idea for a long time; Huston told a news conference. "For I believe that a person should be a citizen of the country in which he lives."

Huston, 57, has been living in Ireland for 12 years, presently on his estate in County Galway. Huston takes a great interest in local affairs and has said: "I'm fascinated and attracted by the Irish—and I like Irish life."

He resides in Galway with his wife, Ricci, and two children, Anjelica, 12, and Walter, 13. Huston said his wife probably would take out Irish citizenship in a week or two and his children would later.

Huston's great-grandfather emigrated to Canada from Armagh, Ireland, in 1840. Huston's father was Canadian-born.

Davis Demons Program Slated

The Davis Demons Drum Corps will make its 1964 debut Saturday evening with a half-time performance at the Circleville-Wilmington basketball game.

The stand-still concert will consist of four major selections, three of which were composed by John Davis, organizer of the corps.

Tomorrow's performance will launch a campaign for selling Davis Demons Booster stickers. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Davis, 120 Montclair Ave., will lead the group during the program.

Extensive Traffic Conviction Record Leads to Stiff Fine

Mrs. Norma Frances Flannery, 26, who listed her address as Route 2, Chillicothe, was fined $600 and costs and sentenced to six months in the county jail today by Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

Mrs. Flannery was cited by the State Highway Patrol for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone on Nov. 9. She failed to appear in court at that time.

A warrant for her arrest was issued. A subsequent investigation disclosed an extensive record of traffic convictions, including one charge of driving while intoxicated, three of driving while her license was under revocation, three of driving with no operator's license, speeding and reckless operation.

Judge Lamb levied a fine of $500 and a six-month jail sentence for driving while her license was under revocation and a fine of $100 and costs for speeding.

Maynard Taylor, 31, West Portsmouth, was handed a $50 fine with $25 suspended for driving a tractor-trailer truck when he had no highway use tax permit. He was also fined $50 and costs for false trailer registration.

Arthur Pipes, 38, 309 E. Franklin St., was fined $30 and costs with $15 of the fine suspended for failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead.

Other completed cases on the traffic docket were: Gary Enderle, 18, Chillicothe, $25 and costs for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Ronald Clagg, 24, Lancaster, $50 and costs for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Benjamin Duvall, 38, Ashville; $15 and costs for failure to yield the right of way.

FM Broadcast Permit Sought

Two Lancaster area residents have filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission in Washington D.C. requesting a license for the operation of an FM radio broadcasting station at 119½ S. Court St.

The partnership consists of Mrs. Paul Greenwalt and Nelson R. Embrey II, both of the Lancaster area. Application for the construction permit was filed Dec. 23, 1963.

The broadcast station, if approved, will operate on 106.3mc with three kilowatts effective radiated power and an antenna height of 140 feet above ground.

Transmitter, antenna and studios of the proposed station will be located at 119½ S. Court St., above Clifton Motor Sales.

Court Orders Fine of $400

Larry Rhodes, 18, of 708 S. Clinton St., was handed fines totaling $400 yesterday in Circleville Municipal Court.

He was cited into court by Circleville Police on two counts of assault and battery, one charge of drunk and disorderly conduct and a charge of abusing an officer.

Judge Sterling M. Lamb levied a fine of $100 and costs and a 30-day jail sentence on the charge of abusing the officer. The fines for assault and battery were $200, with two sixty-day suspended jail sentences.

The fine for drunk and disorderly conduct was $100 with $50 suspended. Rhodes was placed on probation for two years by the court.

U.S. Diplomats Study New Khrushchev Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top U. S. officials began a careful study today of a reported new proposal from Soviet Premier Khrushchev for a worldwide pact pledging peaceful settlement of international disputes over territory.

The proposal was made by the Soviet leader in messages Thursday to President Johnson and other world leaders. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said while it was being translated into English that in its emphasis on peaceful settlement it seemed to be in line with a long established U.S. policy.

Rusk said the 21-page message would be carefully studied. President Johnson is getting a complete text delivered to him at his ranch in Texas.

The message evidently is part of the Soviet peace offensive which Khrushchev undertook with the beginning of the new year. This parallels a peace drive opened this week by Johnson with a call for breakthroughs toward East-West agreement.

Rusk told a news conference Thursday that the United States will begin work shortly with the Allied governments principally interested in German issues — West Germany, Britain and France — on possible "new initiatives" which the Western powers may put forth in future discussions with the Soviet Union.

The whole U.S. disarmament policy is also under review in a search for new ideas and revamped proposals to be made when the Geneva disarmament conference is resumed Jan. 21.

Rusk also confirmed reports that there has been some discussion of a "bonfire" disarmament proposal for destruction of various types of weapons, such as jet warplanes, which the nuclear powers might otherwise sell or give to smaller countries.

It was learned that the United States has suggested to the Soviet Union an agreement to ban the delivery of such weapons to other countries. The suggestion is understood to have been made by Rusk when he met with Soviet leaders in Moscow last summer for signing of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

In his session with newsmen, Rusk sounded a note of cautious optimism for progress in improving East-West relations in the months ahead, though he was unable to say specifically how negotiations might proceed apart from the scheduled disarmament sessions at Geneva.

News of World in Brief

VACAVILLE, Calif. (AP) — A convict can survive as a Little League umpire, he has a good chance of readjusting to society.

That's the thinking behind a program at the California Department of Corrections facility here, which is experimenting with a one-year program to prepare convicted violent criminals for parole by testing them in a variety of demanding and stressful jobs.

Umpiring Little League games is part of the stress. "There's nothing tougher," says program director Werner J. Einstadter. "A Little League umpire hasn't got a friend, no matter what decision he makes. He can't win either way."

Unless he holds his temper and wins parole.

NEW YORK (AP) — The problem: What to do with old automobiles abandoned in city streets. There were 13,600 last year.

One solution: Dump them in the Atlantic Ocean off Long Island where they'd make homes for fish — as wrecks do — and perhaps improve the fishing.

Commissioner Frank J. Lucia of the Department of Sanitation said Thursday his idea may get serious consideration unless the price of scrap increases. Junk cars, bring $5 each, C.O.D.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — The entire Bible is being read nearly nonstop over Newark radio station WFME-FM.

It started at 6 a.m. Jan. 1. It will continue for 18 hours each day, with time out for a Sunday morning church service, until about 6 p.m. Monday. Everything else was canceled, including the news.

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — The Kennedy brothers, Robert and Edward, had a ski race and Robert won by .1 of a second.

Robert, U.S. attorney general, was teamed with Tom Corcoran, a former Olympic skier, in the doubles competition on Colorado's Aspen Mountain. Edward, U.S. senator from Massachusetts, had Andrea Mead Lawrence, winner of two Olympic gold medals, for his partner in the giant slalom.

The brothers have been vacationing in Aspen since Dec. 26. They leave for Washington Saturday.

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle will make an official visit to Mexico next March and may meet with President Johnson before returning home.

The French president told newsmen he probably will stop in Martinique and Guadeloupe, French islands in the West Indies, en route to Mexico. Asked if Johnson would take advantage of the trip to meet him on one of the islands, De Gaulle replied: "I cannot answer you on that."

PORTO RONCO, Switzerland (AP) — Novelist Erich Maria Remarque, 65, says he had a slight indisposition but is feeling better.

Speaking through a member of his staff at his villa here, the writer insisted his recent illness was not serious, as had been reported. Remarque declined to identify the illness. He is believed to have a cardiac weakness.

Remarque is author of "All Quiet on the Western Front" and other books.

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing of Boston has appealed to the "little people, like you and me" to contribute to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library to be built at Harvard University.

Writing in the Pilot, publication of the Boston archdiocese, the longtime friend of the late president said "I don't know any wealthy people to whom I could appeal for substantial funds for this great project."

The library will house Kennedy's papers.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — President Arturo Illia has refused to accept the resignation of Defense Minister Leopoldo Suarez so he can fight a duel with ousted Air Force Secretary Martin Cairo.

Cairo challenged Suarez New Year's Day after Illia fired him for refusing to accept economy measures recommended by the defense minister and the president. Cairo claimed his "dignity and honor" were injured.

MADRID (AP) — Spanish official sources say Jose Marcia Garcia Lopez, 32, counselor of the Cuban Embassy in Madrid, has requested political asylum in Spain. Garcia Lopez had served in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's embassy in Peking before coming here in 1961.

ADEN (AP) — Police are hunting for gunmen who tried to kill Labor Minister Ali Salem Thursday. It was the third act of violence against officials within a month. Salem escaped injury, but two companions were wounded by bullets fired from a passing car near Aden's civil airport.

Electrical Outage Mystery Is Solved

MEMPHIS (AP) — The city utilities division got a call from a customer who said that come sundown each day, his lights in the house would come on automatically and the radio would start playing.

Just the reverse in the morning; nothing electrical would work all day long, he said.

A division clerk said the customer's service wire had been tapped to a street light circuit which is fed electricity only during the hours of darkness.

Court Says

first order after Graham's complaint.

At the commission hearing in Greene County Common Pleas Court, Gagner maintained that he did not have the necessary training to cut Negroes' hair.

Judge Crawford also commented: "It is too well settled for argument that the legislature is fully empowered to legislate against racial discrimination in places of public accommodation."

"When an owner or proprietor opens up his property or business for use by the public, he subjects it and himself to certain rights in his clients or customers."

"Ordinarily, the law does not undertake to govern or regulate a citizen in the conduct of his strictly private business. In matters of more private concern, he is free to deal with whom he pleases. However, there are certain classes of businesses in the management and conduct of which the general public also has an interest."

"We find no constitutional right in Gagner which is being violated. But unless the cease and desist order of the Civil Rights Commission is enforced the rights of others will be denied."

Film Tycoon Ends His U.S. Citizenship

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — John Huston, American-born film producer, became an Irish citizen today. By so doing he renounced his U.S. citizenship.

The son of Walter Huston, who has carved a name in the film world as important as that of his famous father, signed the official document that made him an Irish citizen in the office of Justice Minister Charles Haughey.

"I've been playing around with this idea for a long time; Huston told a news conference, "For I believe that a person should be a citizen of the country in which he lives."

Huston, 57, has been living in Ireland for 12 years, presently on his estate in County Galway. Huston takes a great interest in local affairs and has said: "I'm fascinated and attracted by the Irish—and I like Irish life."

He resides in Galway with his wife, Rici, and two children, Anjelica, 12, and Walter, 13. Huston said his wife probably would take out Irish citizenship in a week or two and his children would later.

Huston's great-grandfather emigrated to Canada from Armagh, Ireland, in 1840. Huston's father was Canadian-born.

Davis Demons Program Slated

The Davis Demons Drum Corps will make its 1964 debut Saturday evening with a half-time performance at the Circleville-Wilmington basketball game.

The stand-still concert will consist of four major selections, three of which were composed by John Davis, organizer of the corps.

Tomorrow's performance will launch a campaign for selling Davis Demons Booster stickers. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Davis, 120 Montclair Ave., will lead the group during the program.

Extensive Traffic Conviction Record Leads to Stiff Fine

Mrs. Norma Frances Flannery, 26, who listed her address as Route 2, Chillicothe, was fined $600 and costs and sentenced to six months in the county jail today by Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb.

Mrs. Flannery was cited by the State Highway Patrol for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone on Nov. 9. She failed to appear in court at that time.

A warrant for her arrest was issued. A subsequent investigation disclosed an extensive record of traffic convictions, including one charge of driving while intoxicated, three of driving while her license was under revocation, three of driving with no operator's license, speeding and reckless operation.

Judge Lamb levied a fine of $500 and a six-month jail sentence for driving while her license was under revocation and a fine of $100 and costs for speeding.

Maynard Taylor, 31, West Portsmouth, was handed a $50 fine with $25 suspended for driving a tractor-trailer truck when he had no highway use tax permit. He was also fined $50 and costs for false trailer registration.

Arthur Pipes, 38, 309 E. Franklin St., was fined $30 and costs with $15 of the fine suspended for failure to maintain an assured clear distance ahead.

Other completed cases on the traffic docket were: Gary Enderle, 18, Chillicothe, $25 and costs for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Ronald Clagg, 24, Lancaster, $50 and costs for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Benjamin Duvall, 38, Ashville; $15 and costs for failure to yield the right of way.

Albert Johnson, 39, 508 E. Ohio St.; $30 and costs with $15 suspended for stopping on the traveled portion of the highway.

Russell E. Carter, 111 Highland Ave.; $15 and costs for speeding 45 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Profit Taking Trims Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—A rash of profit taking on the new year rally cut back stock market gains early this afternoon. Trading was active.

The list remained higher on balance. Traders began selling to realize quick profits just as the Dow Jones industrial average and The Associated Press average were moving into historic high ground.

A parade of big blocks marked the start of 1964's second day of trading. First-hour volume was a big 159 million shares compared with 1.16 million Thursday.

Most important stock groups advanced at the start but motors, aerospace issues and airlines turned mixed. Selected issues such as G.D. Searle and Dymo Industries converted big early gains to fractional net losses.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.1 at 287.8, with industrials up 1.5, rails up .5 and utilities up .6.

Promoter of Cockfight Fined in Newark Court
NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A fine of $150 and costs, with $50 of the fine suspended, was imposed on Virgil (Doc) Roach Thursday on charges involving the staging of an unlawful cockfight.

Roach, 67, told Municipal Court Judge Forrest C. Ashcraft that he was moving to California.

Roach had admitted staging gamecock bouts in various rural barns. His arrest came Saturday night when his show attracted a crowd of whom 62 were arrested as spectators.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Khrushchev makes a habit of sending best wishes for the New Year and hopes for peace to American presidents although there have been some notable gaps between his wishes and performance.

He did it with Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy. Now he has done it with President Johnson. He gave Kennedy some miserable days. He seems to have quieted down a bit since then. But that's only maybe.

If Johnson takes his cue from Kennedy he will have a summit conference with the Russian before the 1964 presidential race next fall. Whether or not it relieved international tensions, it would be good American politics.

Khrushchev sent two New Year's messages in 1961, one to Eisenhower, the retiring president, and one to Kennedy, who was then still only president-elect. Then the Russian sent congratulations when Kennedy was sworn in Jan. 20.

Kennedy responded. The two men expressed a desire for a fresh attempt at negotiations on East-West problems. For extra measure, Khrushchev threw in a goodwill gesture.

Five days after Kennedy's inauguration Khrushchev released two surviving crewmen of a U.S. Air Force RB47 jet shot down in the Barents Sea off northern Russia the previous July 1.

Even though Kennedy and Khrushchev may have doubted they would accomplish anything if they met, they probably wanted to take each other's measure close up. So they had a summit meeting in Vienna June 3-4, 1961.

Nothing tangible, at least nothing that would be put in writing, came of it. The two men issued one of those typical diplomatic communiqués expressing good intentions. As it turned out, Khrushchev's intentions weren't very good.

Khrushchev, after meeting Kennedy face-to-face, must have figured he had a soft touch because he didn't lose any time trying to break the President's back. He began putting on pressure to drive the Allies out of Berlin.

Then, on Aug. 15, 1961, Khrushchev's Communists began building their famous—or infamous—wall between East and West Berlin. If Kennedy had ordered it battered down, there might have been war.

He did the next best thing. He assured the West Berliners this country would stand by them. Kennedy made a nationwide television address that probably gave the Russian second thoughts. And he asked Congress for authority to call up 250,000 reserves. Congress gave it to him in a hurry.

While all this was keeping the world edgy, Khrushchev hit Kennedy from another direction. He announced Aug. 31, 1961, Russia would resume nuclear testing. And it did. So did the United States. That got everybody upset.

Nevertheless, on Jan. 1, 1962, Khrushchev sent Kennedy another one of his New Year's greetings. And it was that same year he tried to slip his missiles into Cuba. That was in the fall of 1962. Kennedy backed him down.

And on Jan. 1, 1963—just as if getting caught with his missiles in Cuba was hardly more than getting caught with his hand in the jam pot, which is what it may have seemed like to him—Khrushchev sent Kennedy New Year's greetings.

By this time Kennedy had about given up hope, it seems, that Khrushchev would ever agree to a nuclear test ban treaty. But Khrushchev did, and a treaty was wrapped and delivered by Oct. 7, 1963. It banned tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under the sea.

Khrushchev did more, too. He agreed with Kennedy to set up a "hot line"—a direct teletype communication—between the White House and the Kremlin so the two men could get in touch fast in case of crisis. That was in 1963, too.

By this time some other forces, with which Kennedy had nothing to do, were working on Khrushchev. His economy was in trouble—for instance, he needed a lot of wheat—and the split with his Red Chinese allies was wide open.

Khrushchev, who often appeared to be causing trouble just for the sake of it, began to look a little more reasonable. If Kennedy had lived, the two men might have made more progress. But Johnson is a new man.

He and Khrushchev probably want a close-up of each other, too, even if nothing comes of it soon. Johnson, a comparative unknown because of his vice presidency, is now a world leader. And he wants to act like one, as he has demonstrated in less than two months in office.

One good way to demonstrate it, as Kennedy decided early, is to have a summit meeting. That would attract the world's attention in a way Johnson's hammering on domestic economy never could.

And the summit—provided it didn't turn into a disaster—would give Johnson at home a stature none of his Republican competitors for the presidency could match if only because they're not in a position to.

It wouldn't cost Johnson anything to meet the Russian and, if they didn't settle anything, issue a joint communiqué expressing good intentions.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

Although skies cleared in Ohio during the night, moderate southwesterly winds reached deep into portions of the Southwestern States and funneled warm air into the Buckeye State.

Temperatures before daybreak today averaged near 40 in Ohio. They included Columbus 39, Marietta 44, Cincinnati 42 and Cleveland 40.

Before a somewhat inert cold front swings eastward through the state today, temperatures are expected to register in the 50s with many areas losing most if not all of their snow cover.

Fair and cooler weather is forecast for tonight and Saturday, but in the northeast counties northwesterly winds across Lake Erie Saturday could possibly produce a few local snow flurries.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average to five degrees above normal. Normal high 34-36, normal low 19-23. Cooler over weekend, then little day-to-day change. Precipitation will be generally light, averaging one-tenth to two-tenths of an inch melted as scattered snow flurries Saturday, again toward midweek.

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average a few degrees above normal. Normal high 37-45, normal low 22-28. Only minor changes except cooler Saturday, turning cooler about midweek. Little or no precipitation indicated, but chance of a few showers north central early tonight, and chance of rain or snow Tuesday or Wednesday.

3 Ohio Towns Listed With Very Strict Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Ohio communities—Bucyrus, Morrow and the Columbus suburb of Whitehall—are among 38 listed by the American Automobile Association as areas where motorists should exercise caution because of "very strict" traffic law enforcement.

Notice is hereby given that on December 21, 1963, Honor L. Greenwalt and Nelson R. Embrey, II, a partnership d-b-a Circleville Broadcasting Co., filed with the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C. an application requesting a construction permit for a new FM broadcast station to operate on 106.3mc (Channel 222A) with 3 kilowatts effective radiated power and an antenna height of 140 feet above ground at Circleville, Ohio. The transmitter, antenna, and the studios of the proposed station will be located at 119½ South Court Street, Circleville, Dec. 31, Jan. 3, 7, 10.

Parents of 3-Year-Old Are Buoyed by New Hope

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The parents of three-year-old Johnny Ward are buoyed by a new hope.

The hope springs from Johnny's progress in recovering from the effects of encephalitis, a disease that damages brain cells. Sharing this hope with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward of suburban Delmar, are the Wards' neighbors, who have devoted their time to the rehabilitation project responsible for Johnny's progress.

Because of their efforts, the cheerful little boy's abilities have improved at three times the normal rate in two months, doctors say. His eyes focus now and—to his mother's delight—he crawls.

Johnny was stricken about two years ago. He did not learn many of a baby's normal reflex motions.

Under the direction of the Philadelphia (Pa.) Rehabilitation Clinic a program called "cross-patterning" was begun by which Johnny was helped to follow patterns of reflexive activity that would have been governed by the damaged brain section.

In two months, Johnny's mental development advanced from that of a 14-month-old to that of a 20-month-old.

Johnny wears a special type of wooden platform skate that is designed to keep him from walking. Doctors think it is more beneficial for him to crawl.

He has to be forced to learn how to creep. His exercises consist primarily of manipulation of his arms, legs and head in a creeping or swimming motion.

Three persons are needed to help in doing the basic exercise. That's where the neighbors came in.

The Wards, who moved to Delmar from Lancaster, Pa., last January, have two other children. Mrs. Ward is expecting a baby and Ward's work as a salesman takes him away from home much of the time.

Mrs. Ward invited the neighbors for coffee last July and explained the problem.

Four times a day, at 9 a.m., 1, 5, and 9 p.m., at least three neighbors drop in to help with Johnny's exercises.

Mrs. Edward Romanzo, who has four children, the youngest 8, said: "We got excited when he ate this first meal by himself. We just come in when we can."

5000 Postal Workers To Be Laid Off

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson got a pledge from Postmaster General John Gronouski Thursday that the postal payroll will be cut by 5,000 workers within the next six months.

Gronouski, after a meeting with Johnson, told a news conference that this and other moves, including a proposed $77-million hike in parcel post rates, will result in a cut of $100 million in the annual postal deficit.

The department chief said the economies may require some reduction of postal service. But he said these would not be significant.

He has ordered a reduction by June 30 of 5,000 postal workers—a move that would drop the total number to 590,000. He said no employees would be fired but that some who quit or retire will not be replaced.

The postal deficit for the 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 will be about $100 million lower than the fiscal 1964 deficit, estimated at $650 million.

The department's fiscal 1965 budget will be $200 million lower than the total originally sought by postal officials.

There will be a sharp cut-back in plans to expand and modernize postal facilities. The department will seek only $10 million for such purposes in 1964, compared with the 1963 appropriation of $43 million.

Ohio Airman Aboard Plane Reported Lost

HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP)—An airman whose parents live in Cleveland, Ohio, is among eight aboard a C124 cargo plane reported lost in the Pacific. The list released by the Air Force Thursday included M. Sgt. Herbert M. O'Malley, 39, loadmaster, Clearfield, Utah.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. O'Malley, live at 3504 Tuttle Ave., Cleveland.

Bank Robber Gets $25 In Mutilated Bills

CINCINNATI (AP)—A gunman got about $25 in mutilated bills Thursday in a robbery of the Provident Bank's West End branch, police reported.

Officers said the man told a teller to give him the money and escaped as she sounded an alarm.

world edgy, Khrushchev hit Kennedy from another direction. He announced Aug. 31, 1961, Russia would resume nuclear testing. And it did. So did the United States. That got everybody upset.

Nevertheless, on Jan. 1, 1962, Khrushchev sent Kennedy another one of his New Year's greetings. And it was that same year he tried to slip his missiles into Cuba. That was in the fall of 1962. Kennedy backed him down.

And on Jan. 1, 1963—just as if getting caught with his missiles in Cuba was hardly more than getting caught with his hand in the jam pot, which is what it may have seemed like to him—Khrushchev sent Kennedy New Year's greetings.

By this time Kennedy had about given up hope, it seems, that Khrushchev would ever agree to a nuclear test ban treaty. But Khrushchev did, and a treaty was wrapped and delivered by Oct. 7, 1963.

Khrushchev did more, too. He agreed with Kennedy to set up a "hot line"—a direct teletype communication—between the White House and the Kremlin so the two men could get in touch fast in case of crisis. That was in 1963, too.

By this time some other forces, with which Kennedy had nothing to do, were working on Khrushchev. His economy was in trouble—for instance, he needed a lot of wheat—and the split with his Red Chinese allies was wide open.

Khrushchev, who often appeared to be causing trouble just for the sake of it, began to look a little more reasonable. If Kennedy had lived, the two men might have made more progress. But Johnson is a new man.

He and Khrushchev probably want a close-up of each other, too, even if nothing comes of it. Johnson, a comparative unknown because of his vice presidency, is now a world leader. And he wants to act like one, as he has demonstrated in less than two months in office.

One good way to demonstrate it, as Kennedy decided early, is to have a summit meeting. That would attract the world's attention in a way Johnson's hammering on domestic economy never could.

And the summit—provided it didn't turn into a disaster—would give Johnson at home a stature none of his Republican competitors for the presidency could match if only because they're not in a position to.

It wouldn't cost Johnson anything to meet the Russian and, if they didn't settle anything, issue a joint communique expressing good intentions.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

Although skies cleared in Ohio during the night, moderate southwesterly winds reached deep into portions of the Southwestern States and funneled warm air into the Buckeye State.

Temperatures before daybreak today averaged near 40 in Ohio. They included Columbus 39, Marietta 44, Cincinnati 42 and Cleveland 40.

Before a somewhat inert cold front swings eastward through the state today, temperatures are expected to register in the 50s with many areas losing most if not all of their snow cover.

Fair and cooler weather is forecast for tonight and Saturday, but in the northeast counties northwesterly winds across Lake Erie Saturday could possibly produce a few local snow flurries.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS
NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average to five degrees above normal. Normal high 34-36, normal low 19-23. Cooler over weekend, then little day-to-day change. Precipitation will be generally light, averaging one-tenth to two-tenths of an inch melted as scattered snow flurries Saturday, again toward midweek.

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average a few degrees above normal. Normal high 37-45, normal low 22-28. Only minor changes except cooler Saturday, turning cooler about midweek. Little or no precipitation indicated, but chance of a few showers north central early tonight, and chance of rain or snow Tuesday or Wednesday.

3 Ohio Towns Listed With Very Strict Law
WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Ohio communities—Bucyrus, Morrow and the Columbus suburb of Whitehall—are among 38 listed by the American Automobile Association as areas where motorists should exercise caution because of "very strict" traffic law enforcement.

Notice is hereby given that on December 23, 1963, Honor L. Greenwalt and Nelson R. Embrey, II, a partnership d-b-a Circle City Broadcasting Co., filed with the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D. C. an application requesting a construction permit for a new FM broadcast station to operate on 106.3mc (Channel 222A) with 3 kilowatts effective radiated power and an antenna height of 140 feet above ground at Circleville, Ohio. The transmitter, antenna, and the studios of the proposed station will be located at 118½ South Court Street, Circleville.

Parents of 3-Year-Old Are Buoyed by New Hope

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The parents of three-year-old Johnny Ward are buoyed by a new hope.

The hope springs from Johnny's progress in recovering from the effects of encephalitis, a disease that damages brain cells. Sharing this hope with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward of suburban Delmar, are the Wards' neighbors, who have devoted their time to the rehabilitation project responsible for Johnny's progress.

Because of their efforts, the cheerful little boy's abilities have improved at three times the normal rate in two months, doctors say. His eyes focus now and—to his mother's delight—he crawls.

Johnny was stricken about two years ago. He did not learn many of a baby's normal reflex motions.

5000 Postal Workers To Be Laid Off

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson got a pledge from Postmaster General John Gronouski Thursday that the postal payroll will be cut by 5,000 workers within the next six months.

Gronouski, after a meeting with Johnson, told a news conference that this and other moves, including a proposal $77-million hike in parcel post rates, will result in a cut of $100 million in the annual postal deficit.

The department chief said the economies may require some reduction of postal service. But he said these would not be significant.

He has ordered a reduction by June 20 of 5,000 postal workers—a move that would drop the total number to 590,000. He said no employees would be fired but that some who quit or retire will not be replaced.

The postal deficit for the 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 will be about $100 million lower than the fiscal 1964 deficit, estimated at $650 million.

The department's fiscal 1965 budget will be $200 million lower than the total originally sought by postal officials.

There will be a sharp cutback in plans to expand and modernize postal facilities. The department will seek only $10 million for such purposes in 1964, compared with the 1963 appropriation of $43 million.

Under the direction of the Philadelphia (Pa.) Rehabilitation Clinic a program called "cross-patterning" was begun by which Johnny is helped to follow patterns of reflexive activity that would have been governed by the damaged brain section.

In two months, Johnny's mental development advanced from that of a 14-month-old to that of a 20-month-old.

Johnny wears a special type of wooden platform skate that is designed to keep him from walking. Doctors think it is more beneficial for him to crawl.

He has to be forced to learn how to creep. His exercises consist primarily of manipulation of his arms, legs and head in a creeping or swimming motion.

Three persons are needed to help in doing the basic exercise. That's where the neighbors came in.

The Wards, who moved to Delmar from Lancaster, Pa., last January, have two other children. Mrs. Ward is expecting a baby and Ward's work as a salesman takes him away from home much of the time.

Mrs. Ward invited the neighbors for coffee last July and explained the problem.

Four times a day, at 9 a.m., 1, 5, and 9 p.m., at least three neighbors drop in to help with Johnny's exercises.

Mrs. Edward Romanzo, who has four children, the youngest 8, said: "We got excited when he ate this first meal by himself. We just come in when we can."

Ohio Airman Aboard Plane Reported Lost

HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP)—An airman whose parents live in Cleveland, Ohio, is among eight aboard a C124 cargo plane reported lost in the Pacific. The list released by the Air Force Thursday included M. Sgt. Herbert M. O'Malley, 39, loadmaster, Clearfield, Utah.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. O'Malley, live at 3504 Tuttle Ave., Cleveland.

Bank Robber Gets $25 In Mutilated Bills

CINCINNATI (AP)—A gunman got about $25 in mutilated bills Thursday in a robbery of the Provident Bank's West End branch, police reported.

Officers said the man told a teller to give him the money and escaped as she sounded an alarm.

Congress this year voted $12 million less for the National Institutes of Health than was requested by the administration. Taken by itself, this reduction amounted to only about 1 per cent of the NIH budget and consequently received little attention.

This year, however, may have been a turning point for the institute as a whole and at least some of the nine individual institutes which compose the entity. For the last 10 years Congress has been so enamored of the NIH it appropriated an average of 25 per cent more funds than requested by the White House.

What has happened to change the outlook of Congress so drastically toward this agency which spends just short of a billion dollars a year? Nothing specifically, but a growing dissatisfaction within the medical and scientific professions with the quality of the research produced by NIH and its high cost.

The National Institutes of Health is an amalgam of nine institutions, each dealing in research and statistical studies of one principal disease. There are institutes of cancer, multiple sclerosis, heart disease, etc. Each spends a considerable portion of its budget in scientific research on its own specialty and the overall institute spends vast sums on matters of general health interest.

One of the growing criticisms of NIH is that the overabundant endowment Congress has insisted upon giving the institute has made it necessary for NIH agents to actively recruit science students and members of the faculties of certain universities to use all the funds allotted to it.

Medical research in the United States has never been at a higher level nor of better quality, and certainly grants by the National Institutes of Health and research conducted under its auspices have contributed to this advance. But this does not prove that unlimited medical benefits will be derived from spending unlimited amounts on research, especially research undertaken in haste to fulfill authorized expenditures.

One of President Kennedy's last official acts was the appointment of a commission to investigate the NIH and each member institute and report back to the White House with a critical appraisal of results from the funds expended.

Whatever criticisms may be developed by the commission, Congress must share in the blame for pushing NIH too fast into too big an operation at the cost of efficiency.

Uninhibited Approach

By John Chamberlain

President Lyndon Johnson's indication that there will be a few increases in his upcoming budget for certain "pilot" projects in welfare is another victory for that most useful of advisers, Professor John Kenneth Galbraith. For it is Galbraith, who, on trips down from Cambridge, Mass., has been suggesting around Washington that the way to promote welfare in an era of frugality is to put on inexpensive showcase demonstrations in carefully chosen areas.

Ken Galbraith is always a delight to this columnist because of his uninhibited approach to things. In India, which needs free enterprise, Galbraith, as our Ambassador, talked to Indian professors as if he were an economist from the era of Calvin Coolidge. Now he is busy giving President Johnson some advice which he has taken from the book of no less a person than "Mr. Republican" himself, the late Senator Robert Taft. It was Bob Taft who, to the consternation of some of his Republican colleagues who resented any spending at all first proposed that such things as federal aid to education should be channeled to the neediest counties in the nation, on a demonstration basis that would show local communities everywhere the value in trying to satisfy a few crying needs.

This was the Bob Taft who as called a "socialist" by a few head-shaking friends. But, to the extent that a frugal "demonstration" type of State Welfareism is preferable to blanket, or blunderbuss, federal outlets, Bob Taft is to be commended for conquering the Democratic Party through the medium of his new disciple, Ken Galbraith.

I am not trying to kid Professor Galbraith. He enchants me precisely because he is no hard-and-fast stick-in-the-mud as a Leftist. He is amenable to compromise. He can see that a federal pilot spending might result in local emulation at local expense. As an economist he is willing, on occasion, to forget John Maynard Keynes. Nobody has yet taught him hobnobbing in New York City with the dean of free enterprise economists, Professor Ludwig von Mises, but that might even come to pass some day.

The nice thing about Galbraith is that he can kid his own professorial kind. He is, so I am told on the good authority of internal evidence, the author of a recent spoof called "The McLandress Dimension," written under the pseudonym of Mark Epernay.

Professor McLandress is a Whiz Kid to End all Whiz Kids, one who has managed to carry statistical methods to every logical absurdity that can be conceived by the mind of man. Galbraith-Epernay has denied that he invented McLandress one morning while busy shaving in front of a mirror.

The McLandress test of objectivity in statisticians is beautiful to behold. It consists of calculating, on the basis of the number of self-references in a speech, a co-efficient which is "the arithmetic mean of average of the intervals of time during which a subject's thoughts remain centered on some substantive phenomenon other than his own personality." According to the McLandress Co-efficient, Professor J. K. Galbraith himself has a low rating of "one minute fifteen seconds." Richard Nixon's rating is a bit worse; he checks out at "only three seconds." The late President Kennedy had an excellent co-efficient of twenty-nine minutes, which is exceedingly good for a public figure.

Armed with a McLandress calculator, the general public might think it had something dependable to go on in this business of rating the objectivity of public servants. But alas, like all our learned Herr Doktor who substitute statistical analysis for critical insight, McLandress has missed the point. The number of self-references in any speech by a modern public figure depends not on the public figure's own self-importance but is entirely due to the Flattery-Co-efficient of the chosen ghost writer. For example, the late President Roosevelt's McLandress Co-efficient as judged from his collected speeches, would measure the self-importance, not of himself but of an average composite of Judge Rosenman, Archibald MacLeish, Raymond Moley, Tommy Corcoran, Adolf Berle and Rexford Tugwell. So where do we go from there? Isn't it up to Galbraith-Epernay to write a spoof of his own spoof? He hasn't kidded the statistics manipulators half enough.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Fireproofing of clothing, bedding and draperies may soon be a life-saving process built into the actual fabric.

A flame retarder has been developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the U. S. Quartermaster Corps. This new chemical process fireproofs cotton, wool, rayon, silk, and combinations of these materials.

Fabrics are doused with the chemical agent and then put through a special drying process at extreme temperatures until "cured".

Treated in this manner, the fabrics have caused no toxic, allergic, irritating or respiratory problems when in contact with the body. The materials show no change in appearance or durability. In fact, besides being fire resistant, they also seem to resist shrinkage, mildew, rot and even wrinkling, with this new treatment.

Repeated washing of the fabrics does not alter the effectiveness of the fireproofing.

The preliminary studies with this remarkable "built-in-safety" in clothing offer new and great hope for extra protection against fire.

Hemophiliacs (bleeders) have been helped by another of the lucky "accidents" that have benefited man throughout the history of medical discoveries.

Dr. Johann Erik Jorpes of Karolinska, Sweden, unexpectedly discovered a blood factor that was missing in the blood of congenital bleeders.

This anti-hemophilia factor (AHF) actually halted the severe hemorrhages that threatened the lives of the bleeders.

Important operations, delayed because of the possibility of abnormal bleeding, can now be more safely performed.

Dr. Jorpes and his colleagues were concentrating on a different though related aspect of the blood-clotting mechanism when the AHF factor in clotting was uncovered.

The discovery of AHF has opened vast new areas for the study of the entire blood-clotting mechanism.

For hemophiliacs there now is hope that their lives may be continued without the constant threat of uncontrolled hemorrhage.

The staph (staphylococcus) germ has for the last two decades been building up its defenses against antibiotics. It has in devious ways taken on characteristics that identify it as being drug-resistant.

The staph has been a subtle yet constant threat in hospitals, operating rooms and clinics.

An all-out, no-holds-barred battle has been waged by scientists against the "formidable" staphylococcus that had refused until now to yield to modern medicine.

Potent new antibiotics are now available that significantly destroy the staphylococcus and offer vital protection against the ever-present danger of the complication of staph infections.

Reach Perfection Slowly

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Perfection is not gained by a single vow.

Nor is it necessarily achieved by a thousand righteous self-promises.

That is the mistake many people make when the time comes for those annual New Year resolutions.

"I hereby resolve—" they say putting pen to paper. Then they scribble down a seemingly endless series of vows to do better, vows that would tax the performance of a saint in a long and dedicated lifetime.

Instead of trying to cut down the forest of his faults all at once, why not first start by merely clearing away a bit of the underbrush? Instead of vowing what you're going to do, why not vow to do without?

Anyway, that's the way we've decided to improve ourselves during the coming year.

What are we going to give up? Oh, lots and lots of things. We're going to pare life down to the true clean bone.

As a starter, we're going to give up hula hoops, yo-yos, and dancing the Charleston.

We're going to go right on doing without cigarettes and go right on smoking cigars.

We're giving up caviar—hate the stuff anyway—and pink champagne.

As to those four-martini, three-hour lunches, we're jettisoning them for sure. A man who can't eat his fill during a two-hour lunch is probably wasting too much time talking and not paying enough attention to his plate.

We're going to give up kissing pretty girls in the office locker room. After all, by the time a fellow manages to chase and corner one, he's too tuckered out to enjoy the fun.

We're going to quit telling the boss how to run the firm. When you come right down to it, isn't he really entitled to make his own mistakes in his own inimitable way?

We're going to quit promising to take our wife out at least one evening a week. All this year we're going to promise to take her out at least two evenings a week. Maybe even three. When it comes to promising, why be a tightwad?

Those are a few of our goals for 1964. Already we feel much, much better.

A little self-denial is good for any man. But not too much. A fellow who becomes perfect all of a sudden becomes a stranger to himself, and who wants to live with a stranger?

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson's announced peace drive and his ambition to clip a billion dollars from the next military budget could crimp some business plans as well as those of the Pentagon.

If the sum for military spending is trimmed in the fiscal year starting July 1, it would mark the first drop from a preceding year since 1955—although 1960 outlays held about level with 1959.

Individual companies looking for military hardware orders thus could be more competitive than ever. And some communities housing defense plants or those of suppliers to the various defense industries could find unemployment a rising problem if first the economy drive and later the peace offensive cut demand for military hardware and closes defense installations.

At $51 billion, the proposed military spending would still be about half of the expected federal administrative budget for the next fiscal year. It has ranged from 59 per cent to 52 per cent in each year since the Korean War.

And at $51 billion the military spending would be about 8.5 per cent of Gross National Product, unless this measure of the nation's output of goods and services rises well above the current rate. The range since the Korean War has been 12 per cent in the 1953 fiscal year to 8.3 per cent in 1960. The GNP has risen each year, but almost always at a faster rate than the increase in military spending.

Since the end of World War II, spending under the defense budgets has totaled $600 billion.

If the economy trend catches on, and Congress approves, and if the aim of a peace offensive leads to less world tension, some now see a chance of military spending dropping to $45 billion by fiscal 1969.

Some businesses and some communities are bound to feel the effects. But at the same time there is evidence that savings in military outlays will furnish funds for more government spending in other lines, perhaps furnishing orders and employment for some civilian product makers or services.

New Pentagon thinking already has led to order cancellations to the dismay of companies and communities. It has led to new orders to the joy of rival companies and other communities.

The already risky business of defense production may get tougher with economy drives and any easing of world tensions.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Fireproofing of clothing, bedding and draperies may soon be a life-saving process built into the actual fabric.

A flame retarder has been developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the U. S. Quartermaster Corps. This new chemical process fireproofs cotton, wool, rayon, silk, and combinations of these materials.

Fabrics are doused with the chemical agent and then put through a special drying process at extreme temperatures until "cured".

Treated in this manner, the fabrics have caused no toxic, allergic, irritating or respiratory problems when in contact with the body. The materials show no change in appearance or durability. In fact, besides being fire resistant, they also seem to resist shrinkage, mildew, rot and even wrinkling, with this new treatment.

Repeated washing of the fabrics does not alter the effectiveness of the fireproofing. The preliminary studies with this remarkable "built-in-safety" in clothing offer new and great hope for extra protection against fire.

Hemophiliacs (bleeders) have been helped by another of the lucky "accidents" that have benefited man throughout the history of medical discoveries. Dr. Johann Erik Jorpes of Karolinska, Sweden, unexpectedly discovered a blood factor that was missing in the blood of congenital bleeders.

This anti-hemophilia factor (AHF) actually halted the severe hemorrhages that threatened the lives of the bleeders.

Important operations, delayed because of the possibility of abnormal bleeding, can now be more safely performed.

Dr. Jorpes and his colleagues were concentrating on a different though related aspect of the bloodclotting mechanism when the AHF factor in clotting was uncovered.

The discovery of AHF has opened vast new areas for the study of the entire blood-clotting mechanism.

For hemophiliacs there now is hope that their lives may be continued without the constant threat of uncontrolled hemorrhage.

The staph (staphylococcus) germ has for the last two decades been building up its defenses against antibiotics. It has in devious ways taken on characteristics that identify it as being drug-resistant.

The staph has been a subtle yet constant threat in hospitals, operating rooms and clinics.

An all-out, no-holds-barred battle has been waged by scientists against the "formidable" staphylococcus that had refused until now to yield to modern medicine.

Potent new antibiotics are now available that significantly destroy the staphylococcus and offer vital protection against the ever-present danger of the complication of staph infections.

Reach Perfection Slowly

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Perfection is not gained by a single vow.

Nor is it necessarily achieved by a thousand righteous self-promises.

That is the mistake many people make when the time comes for those annual New Year resolutions.

"I hereby resolve—" they say putting pen to paper. Then they scribble down a seemingly endless series of vows to do better, vows that would tax the performance of a saint in a long and dedicated lifetime.

Instead of trying to cut down the forest of his faults all at once, why not first start by merely clearing away a bit of the underbrush? Instead of vowing what you're going to do, why not vow to do without?

Anyway, that's the way we've decided to improve ourself during the coming year.

What are we going to give up? Oh, lots and lots of things. We're going to pare life down to the true clean bone.

As a starter, we're going to give up hula hoops, yo-yos, and dancing the Charleston.

We're going to go right on doing without cigarettes and go right on smoking cigars.

We're giving up caviar—hate the stuff anyway—and pink champagne.

As to those four-martini, three-hour lunches, we're jettisoning them for sure. A man who can't eat his fill during a two-hour lunch is probably wasting too much time talking and not paying enough attention to his plate.

We're going to give up kissing pretty girls in the office locker room. After all, by the time a fellow manages to chase and corner one, he's too tucked-out to enjoy the fun.

We're going to quit telling the boss how to run the firm. When you come right down to it, isn't he really entitled to make his own mistakes in his own inimitable way?

We're going to quit promising to take our wife out at least one evening a week. All this year we're going to promise to take her out at least two evenings a week. Maybe even three. When it comes to promising, why be a tightwad?

Those are a few of our goals for 1964. Already we feel much, much better.

A little self-denial is good for any man. But not too much. A fellow who becomes perfect all of a sudden becomes a stranger to himself, and who wants to live with a stranger?

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson's announced peace drive and his ambition to clip a billion dollars from the next military budget could crimp some business plans as well as those of the Pentagon.

If the sum for military spending is trimmed in the fiscal year starting July 1, it would mark the first drop from a preceding year since 1955—although 1960 outlays held about level with 1959.

Individual companies looking for military hardware orders thus could be more competitive than ever. And some communities housing defense plants or those of suppliers to the various defense industries could find unemployment a rising problem if first the economy drive and later the peace offensive cut demand for military hardware and closes defense installations.

At $51 billion, the proposed military spending would still be about half of the expected federal administrative budget for the next fiscal year. It has ranged from 59 per cent to 52 per cent in each year since the Korean War.

And at $51 billion the military spending would be about 8.5 per cent of Gross National Product, unless this measure of the nation's output of goods and services rises well above the current rate. The range since the Korean War has been 12 per cent in the 1953 fiscal year to 8.3 per cent in 1960. The GNP has risen each year, but almost always at a faster rate than the increase in military spending.

Since the end of World War II, spending under the defense budgets has totaled $600 billion.

If the economy trend catches on, and Congress approves, and if the aim of a peace offensive leads to less world tension, some now see a chance of military spending dropping to $45 billion by fiscal 1969.

Some businesses and some communities are bound to feel the effects. But at the same time there is evidence that savings in military outlays will furnish funds for more government spending in other lines, perhaps furnishing orders and employment for some civilian product makers or services.

New Pentagon thinking already has led to order cancellations to the dismay of companies and communities. It has led to new orders to the joy of rival companies and other communities.

The already risky business of defense production may get tougher with economy drives and any easing of world tensions.

New Fabrics Offered in Bedspreads

By ELEANOR ROSS
It is this year to replace the old bedspread with something new, you have many moods and interesting fabrics from which to choose.

The fact that traditional patterns are now interpreted in practical pre-shrunk, lint-free, machine-washable cottons makes the shopping all the more interesting.

Some bedspreads are faithful to the gracious mood of Williamsburg in patterns and textures. Other reflect Spanish or Italian inspiration from 18th Century linen and silk weaves.

Little trimming is involved in these spreads since the fabrics themselves are so decorative. In other bedspread collections, much is made of lace and ruffles. Double tiers on an all-lace spread, plus matching canopy, provide the ultimate in feminine, luxurious effect.

Flocked broadcloth is another entry, especially suitable for the tailored spread in rich decorator colors.

Many homemakers refuse to depart from the fitted quilted spread which is practically impossible to wrinkle or muss.

No matter what new fashions may be introduced, continuing important in the overall bedspread picture are washing-machine favorites. As a reminder when laundering some of the lush-textured fabrics — if you line-dry the spread, fold it inside out so that the sides will rub up against each other to fluff the pile.

If you sent your offspring back to college with only minimum bed covers, chances are that you'll get a call for additions. In that case it would be a good idea to consider the thermal-weave blanket.

Formerly available in wool, these wonderful blankets are now made in 100 per cent cotton which is machine-washable.

This type of cotton blanket is extremely lightweight, warm in cold weather, cool in warm weather, and combines utility with good looks.

The principle of thermal construction is to trap body heat to maintain even comfort, regardless of the weather. When a thermal blanket is used, any kind of light top cover will help to contain the body heat. Later, when warm weather comes around again, omit the top covering so that the body heat can escape through the open weave.

You may choose a thermal weave styled simply as a blanket, for use under any type of regular bedspread, or you may prefer a combination blanket-spread — a variation of the same construction but styled as an attractive top cover suitable for a man's or a girl's room — which makes it fine for college.

Next time you are baking a two-layer white or yellow cake (using 8-inch layer cake pans), fold a third of a cup of finely chopped pecans or walnuts into half the batter.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

About Face

DEAR ABBY: I read a letter in your column from a married couple who had been counseled during some marital difficulties by their clergyman. They said there was no mention of a fee, so they didn't know whether to wait for a bill or to send him a check to show their appreciation for his help. You replied, "Since no fee was mentioned there probably was none. Send a check to the church for their building fund or missionary work. Churches can always use money."

Well, what about clergymen? They can use money, too, and most of them need it desperately. It was like telling people if they want to show their appreciation for the fine service they had at a hotel to send a "tip" to Conrad Hilton. Please reverse yourself.

A CLERGYMAN'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Now that you put it that way, I think you're right. I am hereby reversing myself.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is almost 14, and I like a boy who is 15. He acts like he likes me when there is nobody around, but as soon as he gets with his friends, or when anyone else is there, he acts like he doesn't care anything about me. But when I look at him it is as though his eyes are saying "I love you. What does this mean?"

THRILLED
DEAR THRILLED: It doesn't mean a thing. Honey. In this case the "eyes" don't have it. What does his MOUTH say?

DEAR ABBY: When I was 17 I married a man 37. We had a son, and stayed married for six years. After we were divorced I met a man my age and we were married. My ex-husband and I remained friendly because of our son. My ex-husband got sick and asked if he could come to live with us until he got better. My husband said yes, I took care of him. Well, it has been eight years and he's still here. He is now 77 and drinks seven nights a week. He gets a pension and also some income from property. My husband drinks with him and won't work any more. Now I have two drinking men in the house, nobody works, and we all live off my ex-husband. Can this problem be solved?

WEST VIRGINIAN
DEAR WEST VIRGINIAN: Yes. And it's your move. Move your ex-husband out, and give your husband a chance to be a man. And if they're both too blind to find ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS in the telephone book, it's the first listing under "AA."

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to "Borrowed Time," the gallant lady who was dying of cancer and wanted to know if she should marry the man who was begging her to, could have included an additional suggestion. That she and her friend should write their congressmen and senators that they would rather have a cure for cancer than a man on the moon. If you print this, sign me,

Romney Keeps Michigan In National Spotlight

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, whose national image has had the ups and downs of a political roller-coaster, doesn't count himself out of the national picture.

But Romney is not referring to speculation that he might be the 1964 Republican presidential nominee. The governor has steadfastly maintained that he is not a candidate and will not become one.

"I'm concerned about the national picture," Romney said in an interview. "And properly so, because after all, what happens nationally has an important bearing on what happens to Michigan."

Romney, Michigan's first Republican governor in 14 years, has not announced whether he will run for re-election.

Best guess among most Lansing observers is that he will try for at least one more two-year term, despite his occasional expressions of distaste for politics. He is a former president of American Motors.

Romney's political stock soared last spring with adoption of the new State Constitution, which he helped to write

'McHale's Navy' Sailors Planning for Big Wedding

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ernest Borgnine reports that his "McHale's Navy" buddies have his wedding to Ethel Merman all planned.

Borgnine returned to the television series this week after his surprise announcement in New York that he and Miss Merman will marry in July. He reported the cast's plans for the event:

"Joe Flynn will give the bride away, Billy Sands and Fuji (Yoshio Yoda) will be bridesmaids, Gavin McLeod will be the ring-bearer and Gary Vinson will stand outside the church and cry."

Ernie is naturally ebullient, and since the engagement his spirits have soared.

"She's so vivacious, so marvelous, so—well, I just get carried away when I think about her," he said.

His divorce from Mexican actress Katy Jurado isn't final until June, and there have been reports that he might seek quicker freedom.

"I don't think so," he said, "although Miss Katy Jurado has been very nice to offer to get a Mexican divorce to speed things up. Ethel and I are not in that much of a hurry."

"Both of us realize it's a wait, and we're prepared for it. She has commitments, such as a singing engagement at the Talk of the Town in London starting Feb. 18. I won't be finished with the TV series season until the end of March."

"We know we belong together and we're willing to make the best of it."

The romance was a cyclonic affair, befitting both their personalities. Ernie took another date to a Hollywood party a month ago and heard Miss Merman sing. His reaction: "Holy cow, she's fabulous!" He met her and told her so, also how much his daughter had liked her in "It's A Mad (4) World." A few days later the hosts of the party, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shribman, asked Ernie if he would like to bring Miss Merman along on a dinner date. Would he?

They had four dates, then Ernie flew to New York the day after Christmas and popped the question at her apartment. Her reply: "I thought you'd never ask."

She is coming here this weekend, and they will make further plans. One matter seems settled: They will make their home here.

Peacemaker Fatally Wounded in Hassle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Raymond Trivett, 37, of Cleveland died in Polyclinic Hospital Thursday night of wounds he received when stabbed with a screwdriver while trying to break up a fight early Wednesday.

were married. My ex-husband and I remained friendly because of our son. My ex-husband got sick and asked if he could come to live with us until he got better. My husband said yes. I took care of him. Well, it has been eight years and he's still here. He is now 77 and drinks seven nights a week. He gets a pension and also some income from property. My husband drinks with him and won't work any more. Now I have two drinking men in the house, nobody works, and we all live off my ex-husband. Can this problem be solved?

WEST VIRGINIAN
DEAR WEST VIRGINIAN: Yes. And it's your move. Move your ex-husband out, and give your husband a chance to be a man. And if they're both too blind to find ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS in the telephone book, it's the first listing under "AA."

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to "Borrowed Time," the gallant lady who was dying of cancer and wanted to know if she should marry the man who was begging her to, could have included an additional suggestion. That she and her friend should write their congressmen and senators that they would rather have a cure for cancer than a man on the moon. If you print this, sign me,

S.G., M.C.

"LISTENING" 11,000 LIGHT YEARS AWAY—Chris Conley, boy radio-astronomer, rides the nest of a USAF crane as he "tips" the giant 84-foot parabola in the direction of Cassiopeia to receive radio "signals" from 11,000 light years away. He works on staff of USAF's Sagamore Hill Radio Observatory in Ipswich, Mass., and will appear on the Honeywell "Science All Stars" TV show Jan. 12.

Romney Keeps Michigan In National Spotlight

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney, whose national image has had the ups and downs of a political roller-coaster, doesn't count himself out of the national picture.

But Romney is not referring to speculation that he might be the 1964 Republican presidential nominee. The governor has steadfastly maintained that he is not a candidate and will not become one.

"I'm concerned about the national picture," Romney said in an interview. "And properly so, because after all, what happens nationally has an important bearing on what happens to Michigan."

Romney, Michigan's first Republican governor in 14 years, has not announced whether he will run for re-election.

Best guess among most Lansing observers is that he will try for at least one more two-year term, despite his occasional expressions of distaste for politics. He is a former president of American Motors. Romney's political stock soared last spring with adoption of the new State Constitution, which he helped to write as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention.

Romney lists its adoption as the No. 1 achievement of his year-old administration.

But his leadership image suffered a severe blow this fall when the Republican-dominated Legislature failed to adopt the fiscal reform program for the state, frequently beset by financial troubles although now enjoying a booming economy.

The governor's fiscal program was key to a controversial state income tax on both individuals and corporations.

Romney said that despite the failure of the reform, legislative achievement under his regime has been high.

One of these, he said, is the reapportionment of Michigan's congressional seats. The state acquired a 19th congressman last year, but the seat has been filled on an at-large basis.

'McHale's Navy' Sailors Planning for Big Wedding

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ernest Borgnine reports that his "McHale's Navy" buddies have his wedding to Ethel Merman all planned.

Borgnine returned to the television series this week after his surprise announcement in New York that he and Miss Merman will marry in July. He reported the cast's plans for the event:

"Joe Flynn will give the bride away, Billy Sands and Fuji (Yoshio Yoda) will be bridesmaids, Gavin McLeod will be the ring-bearer and Gary Vinson will stand outside the church and cry."

Ernie is naturally ebullient, and since the engagement his spirits have soared.

"She's so vivacious, so marvelous, so—well, I just get carried away when I think about her," he said.

His divorce from Mexican actress Katy Jurado isn't final until June, and there have been reports that he might seek quicker freedom.

"I don't think so," he said, "although Miss Katy Jurado has been very nice to offer to get a Mexican divorce to speed things up. Ethel and I are not in that much of a hurry."

"Both of us realize it's a wait, and we're prepared for it. She has commitments, such as a singing engagement at the Talk of the Town in London starting Feb. 18. I won't be finished with the TV series season until the end of March.

"We know we belong together and we're willing to make the best of it."

The romance was a cyclonic affair, befitting both their personalities. Ernie took another date to a Hollywood party a month ago and heard Miss Merman sing. His reaction: "Holy cow, she's fabulous!" He met her and told her so, also how much his daughter had liked her in "It's A Mad (4) World." A few days later the hosts of the party, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shribman, asked Ernie if he would like to bring Miss Merman along on a dinner date. Would he?

They had four dates, then Ernie flew to New York the day after Christmas and popped the question at her apartment. Her reply: "I thought you'd never ask."

She is coming here this weekend, and they will make further plans. One matter seems settled: They will make their home here.

Peacemaker Fatally Wounded in Hassle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Raymond Trivett, 37, of Cleveland died in Polyclinic Hospital Thursday night of wounds he received when stabbed with a screwdriver while trying to break up a fight early Wednesday.

Police said six or seven persons were involved in the fight in front of a tavern at East 66th Street and Euclid Avenue.

A 23-year-old East Side man surrendered to police Thursday and admitted the stabbing. He was held without charge for questioning.

Felicity Woman Dies Of Shotgun Wound

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — Authorities are investigating the death of Mrs. Vera Marie Evans 42, Felicity, who died of a shotgun wound below the heart.

Police said she was found in her home on a bed Wednesday following an argument with her husband, Charles. She died while being taken to a Cincinnati hospital.

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Never has the future seemed more exciting ... or more disturbing! Today we dream of flights to far stars; about intelligent life on other planets. We look at our own earth with clear eyes, and discuss the possibility of world brotherhood, world government, world peace.

Are these things going to happen? We don't know. But we do know that nothing is impossible.

In fact, Jesus tells us that all things are possible with God. He wants us to understand that God is infinite power, as well as infinite love. The foolishness of men cannot affect God's plans for the universe, or His love for each one of us.

Faith is what we need ... faith in the certainties upon which the Christian Church is founded. When we put our lives in God's hands, there is no need to view the future with doubt or dread. All will be well.

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Never has the future seemed more exciting... or more disturbing! Today we dream of flights to far stars; about intelligent life on other planets. We look at our own earth with clear eyes, and discuss the possibility of world brotherhood, world government, world peace.

Are these things going to happen? We don't know. But we do know that nothing is impossible.

In fact, Jesus tells us that all things are possible with God. He wants us to understand that God is infinite power, as well as infinite love. The foolishness of men cannot affect God's plans for the universe, or His love for each one of us.

Faith is what we need... faith in the certainties upon which the Christian Church is founded. When we put our lives in God's hands, there is no need to view the future with doubt or dread. All will be well.

Mary, The Mother of Jesus

HER RELATIONSHIP WITH HER SON AS A CHILD AND IN LATER YEARS

Scripture—Luke 2:39-51; Matthew 13:54-56; Acts 1:14.

By R. H. RAMSEY

CERTAINLY the most important woman of Scripture is Mary, the mother of Jesus. Next to her Son, she is the dominating figure in the nativity narratives; she is one of three persons to whom Christ spoke directly from the Cross; and the only woman mentioned by name in the upper room gathering immediately preceding Pentecost.

Yet, in the intervening years, this noblest of mothers and women has become the most misunderstood, being either coldly neglected or adoringly worshipped.

We catch glimpses into her character throughout the first chapters of Luke. Her spiritual receptiveness and faith are obvious in her reply to the angel Gabriel (Luke 1:38). Her inner wonderment and joy over the events which followed seem too miraculous, too sacred to her. But she holds them closely, "pondering them in her heart" (Luke 2:19). She was calm and deep, spiritually strong, steady and persevering in grace.

The years of Jesus' childhood

We see the contemplative character of Mary again in the concluding verse of this chapter. Like most parents, she didn't fully understand her Son, but she treasured the mysteries concerning Him, seeking not so much to understand them, but to draw the blessedness from them.

In Matthew 12:46-50, and again in 13:55-56, we find the most detailed statements concerning the family of Jesus, that we find anywhere in the Gospels. We learn that Joseph was a carpenter, that Jesus was apparently trained as a carpenter as a young man. These verses also refer to actual brothers and sisters of Jesus, naming four of them. Those insisting on the perpetual virginity of Mary say these are half-brothers of Jesus, sons of Joseph by a previous marriage. But there is nothing in the Scriptures to indicate this is so, and a simple reading of the text implies they are His immediate kith and kin.

Early in the ministry of Jesus, it became obvious that are summarized in Luke 2:40. Physically, He grew up in the most normal way. Mentally, His mind and soul grew in strength, wisdom, perfection and power far beyond other mortals.

GOLDEN TEXT

"And Mary said, 'My soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.'"—Luke 1:46, 47.

So it was that when Jesus was 12 and went with His parents to Jerusalem for the feast of the passover, He was able to sit with the temple teachers as a disciple. They talked to Him, taught Him and asked Him questions. He answered and they listened in amazement. Then, as every disciple had the right to do, He asked them questions arising out of his religious teachings at home. The teachers were amazed at the clarity and insight this simple, artless boy revealed in His questions and answers. Truly, they had never seen or heard a child like Him before.

In spite of this, He reveals a submissiveness to His parents in His answer to their questioning following His discovery at the temple. But He is also amazed that they did not know He would be there. (Luke 2:48)

His own family did not at that time believe Him to be the Messiah. They seem united in their fears that He should be warned against becoming a religious fanatic. When questioned regarding His family, His answers seem to deny their existence, perhaps for their lack of faith. Nonetheless, He remained deeply concerned for His mother, and from the Cross, selects another to replace Himself as Mary's son. He chooses John, the disciple He loves best, who is also related to Mary by the ties of blood. (John 19:25-27)

Acts 1:14 records the last appearance of Mary in the New Testament. Records inform us that Jesus did not appear to Mary during the 40 days before the Ascension. Until that great event took place, we find Mary in the upper room company. There she is honored as the mother of Jesus, but not assigned any position of prominence or elevation. She is only one Christian, among many others, "continuing with one accord in prayer and supplication to God."

Pope Plans To Retrace Path Traveled by Jesus

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—An individual, and the path he walked, laid the foundation of Christianity.

Pope Paul VI, on his unprecedented journey to the Holy Land this weekend, plans to retrace the topography of that path—the ground traversed by Jesus Christ.

Jesus, a young Jewish teacher slain at 33, had a swift, strange career—punctuated by extraordinary and wondrous events.

Yet the events occurred in ordinary human settings, in the towns, along the trails and lake-shores at the eastern end of the Mediterranean.

The spots which Pope Paul will visit formed the earthly stage on which 2,000 years of history have unfolded.

Saturday evening, on his first day here, the Pope is expected to spend an hour in the Garden of Gethsemane. There Jesus held his last lonely vigil before his arrest and death.

Jesus, on His way there after the Last Supper with his apostles or during it, delivered his final discourse, foretelling his death, warning of persecutions, urging love and promising that his spiritual presence would remain.

An objective of the Pope's trip here is to pray, as did his Lord, for Christian unity.

A rough, bare white rock, which today protrudes inside a dim-lit church, is said to be the place where Jesus prayed and steeled himself for his ordeal ahead—and where Pope Paul, too, will pray.

The Pope also will walk the sad, winding route that Jesus followed from the Roman seat of judgment to the traditional site of the Hill of the Skull (Golgotha) where he was crucified and entombed.

The route now is called the "Via Dolorosa"—the Way of Sorrows.

It begins at the Lithostrotos, the ancient paved square where the Roman governor, Pilate, held court when Jesus was brought there, charged with blasphemy and claiming a divine mantle of kingship.

Along the old city's narrow, cobblestone streets, tables and monuments mark the incidents of the melancholy march. These are called "stations of the Cross." Pope Paul will follow the same course.

The Church of the Holy Sepulcher is a somber, labyrinthine sanctuary of candlelit chambers, stone stairways, balconies, alcoves, columns and altars, almost always astir with moving figures, chanting voices and clouds of incense.

Here Saturday afternoon, Pope Paul is scheduled to celebrate a Mass—the ancient rite commemorating Christ's self-sacrifice for man, and also his victory over death.

Inside the church, about 14 feet below the Crucifixion platform, is a traditional place of burial.

On his second day here, Sunday, the Pope will cross the border into Galilee to visit Nazareth, the country town where Jesus grew up, the slope beside the lake where Jesus delivered the sermon on the Mount and also Mount Tabor, where Jesus was transfigured before the eyes of three apostles.

Returning to Jerusalem, he visits Bethlehem next day, on Monday.

Winners in the Christmas Home Decorating Contest were announced this weekend following judging by David Dill, architect with a Columbus advertising firm; Seibert Duvall, Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co.; and Dwight Pierce, South-Central Rural Electric Co.

First place in the Best Decorated Home Class went to the Robert Knodes, 330 Peggy Lane; second place, the William Whartons, 320 Peggy Lane; third place, the Charles Hensons, 11870 Circleville Ave.

The best decorated entrance prize went to Mrs. Blodwin Johnson, 105 E. Main St.; second place to the Joe Hedges, 201 E. Main St. and third to William Pangburn on Station Street.

The best decorated outside Christmas tree award went to Andy Ward, 69 Wright St.; second place was earned by the Donald Flier home at the end of E. Main St.; and third place to the Lowell Cooper's, 74 E. Main St.

A total of $65 was awarded by Ashville Community and Civic Clubs, which jointly sponsor the project. The judges pointed out that those using a color scheme throughout were considered before other homes using too much color. They found the judging difficult as there were many homes to be considered.

The Ashville Women's Civic Club will meet 8 p. m. today in the home of Mrs. Donald Flier. Each member is requested to bring a gift wrapped dessert on a plate to be auctioned off later in the evening. Coffee will be furnished by the hostess.

Members also are to bring an item for a country store or a "white elephant." Money from this auction will aid a club project.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bausum, Cherry St., announce the birth of a daughter born Dec. 29 in Riverside-Methodist Hospital in Columbus. The baby weighed 7 pounds and 14 ounces and has been named Paige Allyson. Mr. Bausum returned to his home base at Norfolk, Virginia Friday after spending a two weeks leave with his wife. He is expected to be released from the Navy approximately Jan. 15.

On Dec. 26 Walter Hedges suffered a heart attack in his home where he is now confined. Both are reported improved.

A large family gathering was held Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters Sr., Route 2, with 70 present. Attending were the Peters' 11 children and their families. All of the family was able to attend but two who were too confined to their jobs.

Castro Says Latin Alliance Plan 'Doomed'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Fidel Castro declared Thursday the Alliance for Progress is doomed to failure while at the same time "the Cuban revolution progresses."

The U. S. plan to assist Latin-American countries the prime minister said, addressing throngs in Havana on the fifth anniversary of his takeover, "wants to maintain the same rhythm of things."

Castro declared "the past can never return," and hailed his five years in power as a "victory against Yankee imperialists."

Speaking of the Alliance for Progress, he said: "The imperialists talk about assigning resources to build a few little schools and for some public works."

"They send out peace corps that are really spy corps. 'All these things are destined to the most absolute failure.'"

Castro's speech, monitored here, followed an hour-long parade of Cuba's military might, considered the most powerful in Latin America.

Castro boasted of modern military equipment. "With those arms," he declared, "we can fight against the best equipped forces of the imperialist army of the United States."

Injection of Procaine Blamed in Man's Death

CINCINNATI (AP)—Raleigh Poppe, 25, of Lebanon, who told a physician he was not allergic to drugs, died Thursday in the doctor's Lockland office after receiving a procaine injection for treatment of a carbuncle on his upper left arm, authorities said.

Attending besides the Small's were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Purcell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Cline and family and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ward and family, all of Ashville.

An hour's factory work in 1962 would buy 3.4 pounds of bacon, compared with 2.2 pounds in 1942 and 1.8 pounds in 1932.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Friday, Jan. 3, the 3rd day of 1964. There are 363 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1831, Thomas Sidebotham's tavern in Frankford, Pa., was the site of the organization of the Oxford Provident Building Association—the first building and loan association in the United States.

On this date: In 1777, American Colonial soldiers defeated the British in the Battle of Princeton, N.J.

In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson named Herbert Hoover director-general of the international organization for the relief of liberated countries.

In 1945, U.S. naval units made carrier strikes at Japanese-held Formosa and Okinawa islands during World War II.

In 1950, the U.S. State Department ordered the closing of Hungarian consulates in New York City and Cleveland in retaliation for the imprisonment of American businessman Robert Vogler.

Ten years ago—Fifteen persons were trampled to death and 43 injured as crowds of Japanese well-wishers collected around Emperor Hirohito's palace in Tokyo.

Five years ago—President Eisenhower signed the proclamation making Alaska the 49th state.

One year ago—The U.S. expressed sharp concern for three bombing and strafing attacks by United Arab Republic military jets in connection with the fighting in Yemen.

Seattle Church Operates Its Own Coffee Bistro

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—"Where," asked the young doctor, "can I ask an honest question about Christianity in this church?"

The question started the Rev. William H. Creevey thinking. Where indeed?

The answer the young Presbyterian minister and some of his flock came up with is a far cry from the traditional church ice cream social.

It's Le Rapport, a candle-lit coffee house featuring discussions ranging from political philosophy to the latest sexy Italian movie.

The Rev. Mr. Creevey, 32, and other young adults of Woodland Park Presbyterian Church first started holding weekly discussion meetings at their homes.

One night last June, Bill Creevey, as he is known, brought up the church-related bistro idea. His plan at first was to establish a center primarily for discussion of current motion pictures.

"Our feeling was that the questions raised by contemporary films and other art forms are the questions the church is concerned with," he recalls.

The next day, the Rev. Mr.

Creevey learned that the coffee house next door to the Ridge-mont theater was for rent. The Ridge-mont, eight blocks from the church, specializes in foreign films. The coffee house had been operated as a cabaret and dance hall.

Bill Creevey and his friends got approval from the governing board of the church and, on Sept. 17, the coffee house reopened with discussion taking the place of dancing.

Le Rapport is designed to be non-profit, and has been. In the first three months it went $500 in the red. The backers, reluctant to impose a cover charge, started soliciting $10 contributions. They pay two employees, a cook and a waiter, and the rent is $110 a month. The establishment is open five nights a week with discussions on weekend nights. Starting in January, film society meetings were scheduled Tuesday through Thursday evenings.

Crowds average about 50 or 60, almost all non-members of the Woodland Park Church—or perhaps of any church.

Subject matter was quickly expanded. On a recent weekend, there were scenes from a play about Joan of Arc, "The Lark," a discussion of "Boccaccio '70," a racy Italian film playing next door, and a session on liberalism and conservatism.

On the latter evening, Dr. Giovanni Costigan of the University of Washington History Department gave a 20-minute talk. Then people started asking questions and making observations. It was midnight when the discussion broke up.

COTTON ENVOY—The 1964 "Maid of Cotton" is Sue Meredith, shown after her triumph in Memphis, Tenn. She is 21, a home economics student at Alabama College, and lives in Andalusia, Ala. Now comes a global tour as goodwill envoy for cotton.

Mary, The Mother of Jesus

HER RELATIONSHIP WITH HER SON AS A CHILD AND IN LATER YEARS

Scripture—Luke 2:39-51; Matthew 13:55-56; Acts 1:14.

By R. H. RAMSEY

CERTAINLY the most important woman of Scripture is Mary, the mother of Jesus. Next to her Son, she is the dominating figure in the nativity narrative; she is one of three persons to whom Christ spoke directly from the Cross; and the only woman mentioned by name in the upper room gathering immediately preceding Pentecost. Yet, in the intervening years, this noblest of mothers and women has become the most misunderstood, being either coldly neglected or adoringly worshipped.

We catch glimpses into her character throughout the first chapters of Luke. Her spiritual receptiveness and faith are obvious in her reply to the angel Gabriel (Luke 1:38). Her inner wonderment and joy over the events which followed seem too miraculous, too sacred to her. But she holds them closely, "pondering them in her heart" (Luke 2:19). She was calm and deep, spiritually strong, steady and persevering in grace.

Early in the ministry of Jesus, it became obvious that the years of Jesus' childhood are summarized in Luke 2:40, 52. Physically, He grew up in the most normal way. Mentally, His mind and soul grew in strength, wisdom, perfection and power far beyond other mortals.

GOLDEN TEXT

"And Mary said, 'My soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.'—Luke 1:46, 47.

So it was that when Jesus was 12 and went with His parents to Jerusalem for the feast of the passover, He was able to sit with the temple teachers as a disciple. They talked to Him, taught Him and asked Him questions. He answered and they listened in amazement. Then, as every disciple had the right to do, He asked them questions arising out of His religious teachings at home. The teachers were amazed at the clarity and insight this simple, artless boy revealed in His questions and answers. Truly, they had never seen or heard a child like Him before.

In spite of this, He reveals a submissiveness to His parents in His answer to their worried questioning following His discovery at the temple. But He is also amazed that they did not know He would be there. (Luke 2:51)

Pope Plans To Retrace Path Traveled by Jesus

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—An individual, and the path he walked, laid the foundation of Christianity.

Pope Paul VI. on his unprecedented journey to the Holy Land this weekend, plans to retrace the topography of that path—the ground traversed by Jesus Christ.

Jesus, a young Jewish teacher slain at 33, had a swift, strange career—punctuated by extraordinary and wondrous events.

Yet the events occurred in ordinary human settings, in the towns, along the trails and lakeshore at the eastern end of the Mediterranean.

The spots which Pope Paul will visit formed the earthly stage on which 2,000 years of history have unfolded.

Saturday evening, on his first day here, the Pope is expected to spend an hour in the Garden of Gethsemane. There Jesus held his last lonely vigil before his arrest and death.

Jesus, on His way there after the Last Supper with his apostles or during it, delivered his final discourse, foretelling his death, warning of persecutions, urging love and promising that his spiritual presence would remain.

An objective of the Pope's trip here is to pray, as did his Lord, for Christian unity.

A rough, bare white rock, which today protrudes inside a dim-lit church, is said to be the place where Jesus prayed and steeled himself for his ordeal ahead—where Pope Paul, too, will pray.

The Pope also will walk the sad, winding route that Jesus followed from the Roman seat of judgment to the traditional site of the Hill of the Skull (Golgotha) where he was crucified and entombed.

The route now is called the "Via Dolorosa"—the Way of Sorrows.

It begins at the Lithostrotos, the ancient paved square where the Roman governor, Pilate, held court when Jesus was brought there, charged with blasphemy and claiming a divine mantle of kingship.

Along the old city's narrow, cobblestone streets, tables and monuments mark the incidents of the melancholy march. These are called "stations of the Cross." Pope Paul will follow the same course.

The Church of the Holy Sepulcher is a somber, labyrinthine sanctuary of candlelit chambers, stone stairways, balconies, alcoves, columns and altars, almost always astir with moving figures, chanting voices and clouds of incense.

Here Saturday afternoon, Pope Paul is scheduled to celebrate a Mass—the ancient rite commemorating Christ's self-sacrifice for man, and also his victory over death.

Inside the church, about 14 feet below the Crucifixion platform, is a traditional place of burial.

On his second day here, Sunday, the Pope will cross the border into Galilee to visit Nazareth, the country town where Jesus grew up, the slope beside the lake where Jesus delivered the sermon on the Mount and also Mount Tabor, where Jesus was transfigured before the eyes of three apostles.

Returning to Jerusalem, he visits Bethlehem next day, on Monday.

Winners in the Christmas Home Decorating Contest were announced this weekend following judging by David Dill, architect with a Columbus advertising firm; Seibert Duvall, Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co.; and Dwight Pierce, South-Central Rural Electric Co.

First place in the Best Decorated Home Class went to the Robert Knodes, 330 Peggy Lane; second place, the William Whartons, 320 Peggy Lane; third place, the Charles Hensons, 11870 Circleville Ave.

The best decorated entrance prize went to Mrs. Blodwin Johnson, 105 E. Main St.; second place to the Joe Hedges, 201 E. Main St. and third to William Pangburn on Station Street.

The best decorated outside Christmas tree award went to Andy Ward, 69 Wright St.; second place was earned by the Donald Flier home at the end of E. Main St.; and third place to the Lowell Cooper's, 74 E. Main St.

A total of $65 was awarded by Ashville Community and Civic Clubs, which jointly sponsor the project. The judges pointed out that those using a color scheme throughout were considered before other homes using too much color. They found the judging difficult as there were many homes to be considered.

The Ashville Women's Civic Club will meet 8 p. m. today in the home of Mrs. Donald Flier. Each member is requested to bring a gift wrapped dessert on a plate to be auctioned off later in the evening. Coffee will be furnished by the hostess.

Members also are to bring an item for a country store or a "white elephant." Money from this auction will aid a club project.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bausum, Cherry St., announce the birth of a daughter born Dec. 29 in Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus. Everyone is urged to attend. Dismissal will be promptly at 7 p. m.

Local Baha'i Group Lists Weekly Thought

The following is from Baha'i teachings: "The Baha'i Faith is not the destroyer of any former religion; it does not destroy, but fulfills. Christian, Mohammedan, Jew, Hindu—each finds in the teachings of the Prophet Baha'u'llah the fulfillment of the principles and prophecies of his own faith. The student of spiritual interpretation of all Scriptures follows his own Leader forward into the climactic experience of a universal Faith."

Boston Pats' Defense Said Very Tough

San Diego '11' Faces Problem In AFL Playoff

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Coach Sid Gillman firmly believes his San Diego Chargers will run into "about as good a defense as there is in professional football" when they play the Boston Patriots for the American Football League championship Sunday.

"They talk about the defenses of the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers and the New York Giants. But that Boston defense is about equal to any," Gillman said today.

The Chargers, nevertheless, are favored by about six points. Gillman's estimate of Boston's defensive strength is not likely to be endorsed by acclamation in National Football League circles. But, so far as it pertains to the AFL, his finding is unassailable.

The Patriots ranked first in the league in total defense, allowing an average of 265.3 yards per game. They were first in rushing defense with an average of 79.1 yards allowed, and fourth in pass defense—only 6.2 yards behind the leader—with an average of 186.2 yards allowed.

The Chargers flattened the Patriots 50-17 in a pre-season game and barely beat them twice, 17-13 and 7-6, during the regular season. Gillman was asked to explain the high score of the pre-season game.

"They don't play much of a pattern in pre-season games," he said. "They play you about as simply as you could hope they would. But when the bell rings things change a little bit."

Gillman said trying to get a good running game going will not be San Diego's only problem Sunday. "We've got to run a little and we've got to be able to throw," he said. "And if any phase of our game suffers, we'll suffer."

Says Patriot Coach Mike Holovak: "They aren't going to run."

This will be the third title game for the Chargers. They lost one to Houston in 1960, when they were still in Los Angeles, and another to Houston in 1961.

The Patriots won their first Eastern Division title by defeating Buffalo in a playoff Dec. 28.

Ace Passers Set for Duel

Concannon, Mira To Meet Again

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A possible repeat of the George Mira-Jack Concannon duel of Miami's North-South game was put in the hopper today. The two ace passers were named for the starting duties in the 15th annual Senior Bowl football game Saturday.

Concannon, of Boston College passed and ran the North team to a 14-0 lead at Miami. But Mira took charge and passed the South to a 23-14 come-from-behind victory.

Mira, the University of Miami whiz the past three years, completed 27 of 42 passes for 336 yards, all records for the game. His passes were good for two touchdowns and he set up a third.

Concannon finished the game with 12 completions out of 25, good for 366 yards.

Backing up Concannon for North Coach George Wilson of the Detroit Lions in Saturday's game will be Dick Shiner of Maryland and Bill Munson of Utah State, both topnotch passers themselves.

South Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys tabbed Larry Rakestraw of Georgia, star of the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, and ball America Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech for quarterback duty in relief of Mira.

Lothridge also has been picked as a safety man on the defensive unit.

The South has won nine of the 14 Senior Bowl games and the North has taken five.

The game will be nationally televised with an area within 100 miles of Mobile blacked out. A near sellout is expected in 40,605 capacity Ladd Stadium. Kickoff is at 1 p.m., CST.

Male Athlete Of Year Is Sandy Koufax

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sandy Koufax, a Brooklyn boy who didn't really make good until the Dodgers moved west, was named Male Athlete of the Year for 1963 today in The Associated Press year-end poll, capping a long list of honors he has received for his amazing pitching feats.

Koufax, a left-hander reputed to throw a baseball faster than anyone in the major leagues, led the Los Angeles Dodgers to the National League pennant, winning 25 games and then won two more in their four-game sweep of the World Series against the New York Yankees. Previously he had been selected as the National League's Most Valuable Player and had been awarded the Cy Young Award as the top major league pitcher.

In recognition of his selection as Male Athlete of the Year, Koufax will be presented The Associated Press Eagles Trophy at the Chicago Baseball Writers Dinner Jan. 12.

Another Dodger, speedster Maury Wills, won the trophy last year.

In the voting by sports writers and broadcasters in the AP poll, Koufax outdistanced two of the top quarterbacks of the 1963 football season, Y. A. Tittle of the pro New York Giants and Roger Staubach of Navy.

Dischinger Is Star of Cage on TV

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Terry Dischinger and the Baltimore Bullets scored a coast-to-coast bullseye Thursday night at the expense of the re-run New York Knickerbockers as the National Basketball Association taped off its series of national-ly televised games.

The NBA's return to national television after a two-year lay-off might have been staged more dramatically at Dayton, Ohio, where the Cincinnati Royals squeezed by the Detroit Pistons 112-111, or at San Francisco where Bob Pettit led the St. Louis Hawks to 111-106 verdict over the Warriors. But Dischinger's near-perfect marksmanship in Baltimore's 124-109 video romp over the Knickerbockers was a living room smash in its own right.

The Bullets' nifty forward scored 25 of his game-high 36 points in the second half and personally nipped New York's repeated comeback bids. Dischinger hit 7-for-7 in the third period, 9-for-11 in the half and 13-for-18 in the game. The Knicks, who trailed by 14 at intermission, four times closed the gap to six points in the final quarter.

Rich Golf Winter Circuit To Open

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Golf's rich winter tournament circuit opened today as the professional tribe, headed by Arnold Palmer, stroked away in the first round of the $50,000 Los Angeles Open.

Palmer, heavier, rested and a little rusty after a vacation from the sport since Nov. 12, occupied a familiar role in this 38th annual fixture—the man to beat for the winner's purse of $9,000.

Palmer won it last year with a 72-hole score of 274, 10 strokes under par.

Ready for the challenge again were National Open champion Julius Boros and 41 others of the top 50 money winners in 1963.

Williamsport Owns Best Win Record

Of the 10 high school basketball teams that will compete in the Teays Valley sectional of the Central District Class A tournament, Williamsport currently has the best won-lost record.

The Deers have won nine games in 11 starts this season. Jackson High School's 7-3 slate is the second best in the sectional area.

Teams that will compete at Teays Valley this year are Williamsport, Jackson, Logan Elm, Lancaster Fenwick, Madison South, Darby, The Plains of Mt. Sterling, Berne Union, Monroe and Amanda-Clearcreek.

The Deers, as a team, have a field goal average of 43.7 per cent. Six of the team members are connecting on more than 40 per cent of their goal attempts.

PACED by Rick Fenstermaker, currently the second leading scorer in the county, the Williamsport cagers have averaged 83.6 points per game while holding opposition to 55.5.

Fenstermaker has 211 points, hitting the bucket at a rate of 48.6 per cent from the field.

Three of the top 10 scorers in the county are from Williamsport. Larry Beard's 194 point total in 10 games is good for fifth place while Nick Williams is holding down eighth place with 130 in 11 games.

The leading scorer in the county is Tom Seely of Monroe. He has totaled 218 points in 12 outings for the Indians.

The high scoring duo of Dan Bowen and Dave Rowland from Darby are right behind Fenstermaker with 202 and 197 points respectively, scored in 10 games.

Bob Sparks of Monroe is in sixth place in the scoring race with a 159-point total. Dwight Whaley of Jackson is seventh, tallying 138 in 10 games.

ROUNDING out the top 10 are Bruce List of Jackson with 129 points and Jeff Lutz of Logan Elm with 119 in eight games.

Teays Valley, playing in Class AA competition, is the lone undefeated team in the county.

Glenn Burchwell of Centralia in Ross County is the leading scorer in the area. He has totaled 292 points thus far this season.

Scoring leaders are based on a tabulation of unofficial records kept by The Herald.

East, West Pro Cage Stars Picked

NEW YORK (AP) — National Basketball Association coaches completed the East and West teams which meet in the NBA's 17th annual All-Star game at Boston Jan. 14 by selecting two Detroit players and one each from New York and Philadelphia to the squads Thursday.

The coaches' poll tabbed Bailey Howell and Don Ohl of the Pistons, the Knickerbockers' Tom Gola and the 76ers' Chet Walker. They join 16 players selected last week by NBA writers and broadcasters.

Red Auerbach of Boston will coach the East, which holds an 8-5 edge in All-Star victories. Los Angeles Coach Freddy Schaus will lead the West.

The Celtics' Bill Russell and Baltimore's Walt Bellamy were

Cage Victory Drought Hits Mountaineers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It never should have happened to West Virginia, especially with the Mountaineer basketball team helping the state celebrate its 100th birthday.

But it did, and West Virginia distinctly shows the effects. The effects, that is of playing without a Rod Hundley, a Jerry West or a Rod Thorn.

This is the first season in 10 that the Mountaineers don't have one of those stars or one of similar ability. The results so far: a 6-6 record following the latest loss, a 65-57 upset at home by weak Furman Thursday night.

The start is West Virginia's worst since the 1953-54 season. Not too coincidentally, that was the season before Hundley started playing varsity basketball. West followed Hundley and himself was followed by Thorn, who graduated last year.

None of the nation's top 10 teams were scheduled on the light basketball night.

In other major games, Pitt trampled winless Dartmouth 107-78, Virginia Tech squeezed by Virginia 62-60 Richmond whipped Florida State 69-65 and Houston edged Air Force 64-63.

the only unanimous picks in last week's poll. Bob Pettit of St. Louis was named for the 10th straight year while Walker, New York's Len Chappell and Cincinnati's Jerry Lucas will be appearing for the first time.

Star's Dentist Bill Is Paid

Pitt Tackle Gets Unusual Contract

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American Football League is starting to pull teeth for a share of this season's collegiate talent package.

Kansas City literally paid a dentist's bill Thursday to land a draft choice as AFL clubs made some headway in their uphill signature struggle with the rival National Football League.

The Chiefs shelled out $42,500 to Pittsburgh tackle Ernie Borghetti, a 1962 "future" selection, but the big lineman cost them more than the announced figure. Borghetti's two-year, no-cut contract also stipulated that the club would pay his three-year tuition at dental school.

The Oakland Raiders signed another 1962 "future," 270-pound tackle Rex Mirich of Arizona State College at Flagstaff, and the Houston Oilers bagged Alabama halfback Benny Nelson, their No. 5 pick in last year's draft and the No. 13 choice of the NFL Detroit Lions.

Fullback Mike Fracchia, another member of Alabama's Sugar Bowl champions, took the NFL road, agreeing to a St. Louis Cardinals' pact. Fracchia, who was hobbled with injuries the past two seasons after an outstanding sophomore showing, was another 1962 "future."

The NFL also collared Nebraska's Dave Theisen. The Cornhuskers' defensive specialist, whose pair of field goals provided his team's victory margin over Auburn in the Orange Bowl, signed with the Los Angeles Rams. Theisen was the Rams' 11th 1963 draft choice.

Canada lured Memphis State fullback Dave Casinelli, the nation's major college rushing leader in 1963, from both U.S. professional leagues. Casinelli okayed an Edmonton Eskimos' contract.

Torres, Gonzalez To Vie for Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Jose Torres and Jose Gonzalez, a couple of boxers from the sunny Caribbean, meet here in the frigid north tonight for the middleweight championship of Puerto Rico.

That may seem odd. But stranger still is the fact that Torres, the champion, is guaranteeing Gonzalez $10,000 and is gambling the television 10-rounder will draw about 8,000 fans to Madison Square Garden.

The fight is rated a toss-up. If 8,000 show up, Torres will collect some cash for the lumps he will receive and a possible prestige victory over his ranking opponent.

Halfback Ken Waldrop of Army covered 100 yards in 9.6 and the 220 in 20.7 during his high school days in Dallas.

SANTA GOOD TO HIM — First Tiger to sign his 1964 contract, and a good one, Al Kaline, star outfielder, emerges from the business bit for a photo in the doorway. Kaline reportedly will get $65,000, one of the highest salaries in Tiger history.

BG Star Regains Lead in Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Komives hasn't had a thing to say about it, but in the space of two weeks the Bowling Green star has lost his major college basketball scoring lead and regained it.

Komives, a 6-foot-1 back court man, has scored 35.5 points per game, good enough to lead the point race through games of Dec. 28, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau said today.

Idle for two weeks, Komives lost the lead last week to Rick Barry of Miami, Fla. But Barry slipped this week to third with a 31.6 average. Manny Newsome of Western Michigan is second, scoring 32 points a contest.

Tiger Frosh Defeat Braves

41-40 Overtime Win Is 1st for CHS

The Circleville High School freshman basketball team won its first game of the season, defeating the Logan Elm frosh, 41-40, in an overtime yesterday at Logan Elm.

The score was knotted at 33-32 at the end of regulation play.

Joe Winner, who tallied four of the Tigers' points in the overtime period dropped in the winning bucket. The Red and Black cagers were down by one point with seconds to go when Winner cashed the final tally.

The Tigers were on top 12-6 at the end of the first period. By halftime the host school had narrowed the margin to 16-15 and as the fourth quarter began the Braves were leading, 28-25.

Terry Martin paced the win for Circleville, scoring 13 points. High for the losers with 11 markers was Steve Fouch.

Circleville, now 1-5, host Mt. Logan on Tuesday and Washington C. H. on Thursday of next week.

Packers Practice Aerial Defense

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The hard-running Green Bay Packers are drilling to cope with a budding doctor of philosophy's passes and the Cleveland Browns' offense.

The future PH. D. (in mathematics) is Frank Ryan, who hopes to complete work for the doctorate at Rice next summer. Ryan completed 135 forwards for 2,026 yards and threw 25 touchdown passes in the regular National Football League season.

The teams will meet Sunday in the Playoff Bowl playoff, traditional for the runners-up in each of the league's two divisions.

Kickoff time is 2 p. m. EST and the telecast of the game will be blacked out locally. Promoters are hoping for a 50,000 crowd.

In Carry Back's comeback campaign he ran second, first and third in his first three starts this year.

Boston Pats' Defense Said Very Tough

San Diego '11' Faces Problem In AFL Playoff

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Coach Sid Gillman firmly believes his San Diego Chargers will run into "about as good a defense as there is in professional football" when they play the Boston Patriots for the American Football League championship Sunday.

"They talk about the defenses of the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers and the New York Giants. But that Boston defense is about equal to any," Gillman said today.

The Chargers, nevertheless, are favored by about six points. Gillman's estimate of Boston's defensive strength is not likely to be endorsed by acclamation in National Football League circles. But, so far as it pertains to the AFL, his finding is unassailable.

The Patriots ranked first in the league in total defense, allowing an average of 265.3 yards per game. They were first in rushing defense with an average of 79.1 yards allowed, and fourth in pass defense—only 6.2 yards behind the leader—with an average of 186.2 yards allowed.

The Chargers flattened the Patriots 50-17 in a pre-season game and barely beat them twice, 17-13 and 7-6, during the regular season. Gillman was asked to explain the high score of the pre-season game.

"They don't play much of a pattern in pre-season games," he said. "They play you about as simply as you could hope they would. But when the bell rings things change a little bit."

Gillman said trying to get a good running game going will not be San Diego's only problem Sunday. "We've got to run a little and we've got to be able to throw," he said. "And if any phase of our game suffers, we'll suffer."

Says Patriot Coach Mike Holovak: "They aren't going to run."

This will be the third title game for the Chargers. They lost one to Houston in 1960, when they were still in Los Angeles, and another to Houston in 1961.

The Patriots won their first Eastern Division title by defeating Buffalo in a playoff Dec. 28.

Ace Passers Set for Duel

Concannon, Mira To Meet Again

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A possible repeat of the George Mirajack Concannon duel of Miami's North-South game was put in the hopper today. The two ace passers were named for the starting duties in the 15th annual Senior Bowl football game Saturday.

Concannon, of Boston College passed and ran the North team to a 14-0 lead at Miami. But Mira took charge and passed the South to a 23-14 come-from-behind victory.

Mira, the University of Miami whiz the past three years, completed 27 of 42 passes for 336 yards, all records for the game. His passes were good for two touchdowns and he set up a third.

Concannon finished the game with 12 completions out of 25, good for 366 yards.

Backing up Concannon for North Coach George Wilson of the Detroit Lions in Saturday's game will be Dick Shiner of Maryland and Bill Munson of Utah State, both topnotch passers themselves.

South Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys tabbed Larry Rakestraw of Georgia, star of the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, and ball America Billy Lofthridge of Georgia Tech for quarterback duty in relief of Mira.

Lofthridge also has been picked as a safety man on the defensive unit.

The South has won nine of the 14 Senior Bowl games and the North has taken five.

The game will be nationally televised with an area within 100 miles of Mobile blacked out. A near sellout is expected in 40,605 capacity Ladd Stadium. Kickoff is at 1 p.m., CST.

Male Athlete Of Year Is Sandy Koufax

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sandy Koufax, a Brooklyn boy who didn't really make good until the Dodgers moved west, was named Male Athlete of the Year for 1963 today in The Associated Press year-end poll, capping a long list of honors he has received for his amazing pitching feats.

Koufax, a left-hander reputed to throw a baseball faster than anyone in the major leagues, led the Los Angeles Dodgers to the National League pennant, winning 25 games and then won two more in their four-game sweep of the World Series against the New York Yankees. Previously he had been selected as the National League's Most Valuable Player and had been awarded the Cy Young Award as the top major league pitcher.

In recognition of his selection as Male Athlete of the Year, Koufax will be presented The Associated Press Eagles Trophy at the Chicago Baseball Writers Dinner Jan. 12.

Another Dodger, speedster Maury Wills, won the trophy last year.

In the voting by sports writers and broadcasters in the AP poll, Koufax outdistanced two of the top quarterbacks of the 1963 football season, Y. A. Tittle of the pro New York Giants and Roger Staubach of Navy.

Dischinger Is Star of Cage on TV

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Terry Dischinger and the Baltimore Bullets scored a coast-to-coast bullseye Thursday night at the expense of the re-run New York Knickerbockers as the National Basketball Association taped off its series of nationally-televised games.

The NBA's return to national television after a two-year lay-off might have been staged more dramatically at Dayton, Ohio, where the Cincinnati Royals squeezed by the Detroit Pistons 112-111, or at San Francisco where Bob Pettit led the St. Louis Hawks to 111-106 verdict over the Warriors. But Dischinger's near-perfect marksmanship in Baltimore's 124-109 video romp over the Knickerbockers was a living room smash in its own right.

The Bullets' nifty forward scored 25 of his game - high 36 points in the second half and personally nipped New York's repeated comeback bids. Dischinger hit 7-for-7 in the third period, 9-for-11 in the half and 13-for-18 in the game. The Knicks, who trailed by 14 at intermission, four times closed the gap to six points in the final quarter.

Rich Golf Winter Circuit To Open

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Golf's rich winter tournament circuit opened today as the professional tribe, headed by Arnold Palmer, stroked away in the first round of the $50,000 Los Angeles Open.

Palmer, heavier, rested and a little rusty after a vacation from the sport since Nov. 12, occupied a familiar role in this 38th annual fixture—the man to beat for the winner's purse of $9,000.

Palmer won it last year with a 72-hole score of 274, 10 strokes under par.

Ready for the challenge again were National Open champion Julius Boros and 41 others of the top 50 money winners in 1963.

South Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys tabbed Larry Rakestraw of Georgia, star of the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, and ball America Billy Lofthridge of Georgia Tech for quarterback duty in relief of Mira.

Lofthridge also has been picked as a safety man on the defensive unit.

The South has won nine of the 14 Senior Bowl games and the North has taken five.

Williamsport Owns Best Win Record

Of the 10 high school basketball teams that will compete in the Teays Valley sectional of the Central District Class A tournament, Williamsport currently has the best won-lost record.

The Deers have won nine games in 11 starts this season. Jackson High School's 7-3 slate is the second best in the sectional area.

Teams that will compete at Teays Valley this year are Williamsport, Jackson, Logan Elm, Lancaster Fenwick, Madison South, Darby, The Plains of Mt. Sterling, Berne Union, Monroe and Amanda Clearcreek.

The Deers, as a team, have a field goal average of 43.7 per cent. Six of the team members are connecting on more than 40 per cent of their goal attempts.

PACED by Rick Fenstermaker, currently the second leading scorer in the county, the Williamsport cagers have averaged 83.6 points per game while holding opposition to 55.5.

Fenstermaker has 211 points, hitting the bucket at a rate of 48.6 per cent from the field.

Three of the top 10 scorers in the county are from Williamsport. Larry Beard's 194 point total in 10 games is good for fifth place while Nick Williams is holding down eighth place with 130 in 11 games.

The leading scorer in the county is Tom Seelye of Monroe. He has totaled 218 points in 12 outings for the Indians.

The high scoring duo of Dan Bowen and Dave Rowland from Darby are right behind Fenstermaker with 202 and 197 points respectively, scored in 10 games.

Bob Sparks of Monroe is in sixth place in the scoring race with a 159-point total. Dwight Whaley of Jackson is seventh, tallying 138 in 10 games.

ROUNDING out the top 10 are Bruce List of Jackson with 129 points and Jeff Lutz of Logan Elm with 119 in eight games.

Teays Valley, playing in Class AA competition, is the lone undefeated team in the county.

Glenn Burchwell of Centralia in Ross County is the leading scorer in the area. He has totaled 292 points thus far this season.

Scoring leaders are based on a tabulation of unofficial records kept by The Herald.

East, West Pro Cage Stars Picked

NEW YORK (AP) — National Basketball Association coaches completed the East and West teams which meet in the NBA's 11th annual All-Star game at Boston Jan. 14 by selecting two Detroit players and one each from New York and Philadelphia to the squads Thursday.

The coaches' poll tabbed Bailey Howell and Don Ohl of the Pistons, the Knickerbockers' Tom Gola and the 76ers' Chet Walker. They join 16 players selected last week by NBA writers and broadcasters.

Red Auerbach of Boston will coach the East, which holds an 8-5 edge in All-Star victories. Los Angeles Coach Freddy Schaus will lead the West.

The Celtics' Bill Russell and Baltimore's Walt Bellamy were the only unanimous picks in last week's poll. Bob Pettit of St. Louis was named for the 10th straight year while Walker, New York's Len Chappell and Cincinnati's Jerry Lucas will be appearing for the first time.

None of the nation's top 10 teams were scheduled on the light basketball night.

In other major games, Pitt trampled winless Dartmouth 107-78, Virginia Tech squeezed by Virginia 62-60 Richmond whipped Florida State 69-65 and Houston edged Air Force 64-63.

The 1952 Giants won 39 of their last 47 games to take the National League pennant after a playoff with the Dodgers.

The Los Angeles Angels had their best luck last season, against Baltimore and Minnesota. They split 18 games with each rival.

Star's Dentist Bill Is Paid

Pitt Tackle Gets Unusual Contract

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American Football League is starting to pull teeth for a share of this season's collegiate talent package.

Kansas City literally paid a dentist's bill Thursday to land a draft choice as AFL clubs made some headway in their uphill signature struggle with the rival National Football League.

The Chiefs shelled out $42,500 to Pittsburgh tackle Ernie Borghetti, a 1962 "future" selection, but the big lineman cost them more than the announced figure. Borghetti's two-year, no-cut contract also stipulated that the club would pay his three-year tuition at dental school.

The Oakland Raiders signed another 1962 "future," 270-pound tackle Rex Mirich of Arizona State College at Flagstaff, and the Houston Oilers bagged Alabama halfback Benny Nelson, their No. 5 pick in last year's draft and the No. 13 choice of the NFL Detroit Lions.

Fullback Mike Fracchia, another member of Alabama's Sugar Bowl champions, took the NFL road, agreeing to a St. Louis Cardinals' pact. Fracchia, who was hobbled with injuries the past two seasons after an outstanding sophomore showing, was another 1962 "future."

The NFL also collared Nebraska's Dave Theisen. The Cornhuskers' defensive specialist, whose pair of field goals provided his team's victory margin over Auburn in the Orange Bowl, signed with the Los Angeles Rams. Theisen was the Rams' 11th 1963 draft choice.

Canada lured Memphis State fullback Dave Casinelli, the nation's major college rushing leader in 1963, from both U.S. professional leagues. Casinelli okayed an Edmonton Eskimos' contract.

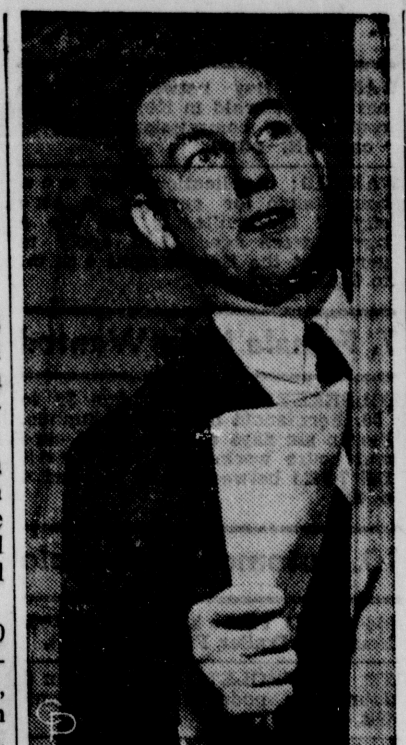

Torres, Gonzalez To Vie for Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Jose Torres and Jose Gonzalez, a couple of boxers from the sunny Caribbean, meet here in the frigid north tonight for the middle-weight championship of Puerto Rico.

That may seem odd. But stranger still is the fact that Torres, the champion, is guaranteeing Gonzalez $10,000 and is gambling the television 10-rounder will draw about 8,000 fans to Madison Square Garden. The fight is rated a toss-up.

If 8,000 show up, Torres will collect some cash for the lumps he will receive and a possible prestige victory over his ranking opponent.

Halfback Ken Waldrop of Army covered 100 yards in 9.6 and the 220 in 20.7 during his high school days in Dallas.

SANTA GOOD TO HIM — First Tiger to sign his 1964 contract, and a good one, Al Kaline, star outfielder, emerges from the business bit for a photo in the doorway. Kaline reportedly will get $65,000, one of the highest salaries in Tiger history.

BG Star Regains Lead in Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Komives hasn't had a thing to say about it, but in the space of two weeks the Bowling Green star has lost his major college basketball scoring lead and regained it.

Komives, a 6-foot-1 back court man, has scored 35.5 points per game, good enough to lead the point race through games of Dec. 28, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau said today.

Idle for two weeks, Komives lost the lead last week to Rick Barry of Miami, Fla. But Barry slipped this week to third with a 31.6 average. Manny Newsome of Western Michigan is second, scoring 32 points a contest.

Tiger Frosh Defeat Braves

41-40 Overtime Win Is 1st for CHS

The Circleville High School freshman basketball team won its first game of the season, defeating the Logan Elm frosh, 41-40, in an overtime yesterday at Logan Elm.

The score was knotted at 33-32 at the end of regulation play.

Joe Winner, who tallied four of the Tigers' points in the overtime period dropped in the winning bucket. The Red and Black cagers were down by one point with seconds to go when Winner cashed the final tally.

The Tigers were on top 12-6 at the end of the first period. By halftime the host school had narrowed the margin to 16-15 and as the fourth quarter began the Braves were leading, 28-25.

Terry Martin paced the win for Circleville, scoring 13 points. High for the losers with 11 markers was Steve Fouch.

Circleville, now 1-5, host Mt. Logan on Tuesday and Washington C. H. on Thursday of next week.

Packers Practice Aerial Defense

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The hard-running Green Bay Packers are drilling to cope with a budding doctor of philosophy's passes and the Cleveland Browns' offense.

The future PH. D. (in mathematics) is Frank Ryan, who hopes to complete work for the doctorate at Rice next summer. Ryan completed 135 forwards for 2,026 yards and threw 25 touchdown passes in the regular National Football League season.

The teams will meet Sunday in the Playoff Bowl playoff, traditional for the runners-up in each of the league's two divisions.

Kickoff time is 2 p. m. EST and the telecast of the game will be blacked out locally. Promoters are hoping for a 50,000 crowd.

Reds Tip Rookie For Third Base

NEW YORK (AP)—The Reds are betting on Chico Ruiz to win the battle of third base on the Cincinnati club.

Ruiz is a 25-year-old bolt of lightning from Puerto Rico who in five years led five leagues in stolen bases and five times was named on an all-star team, either as a shortstop or third baseman.

"Every club we talked trade with at the winter meetings in Los Angeles mentioned Ruiz," said Bill DeWitt, president of the Reds. "But he's not available. We intend to keep him. He's going to be a fine player."

NEW YORK (AP) — "That Was The Week That Was" makes its NBC network debut as weekly half-hour topical revue next Friday and it may prove to be television's most daring experiment of the year.

Marshall Jamison, Broadway play director who has charge of the series, admits the show, which will base its humor and satire on the news of the day, will not have the mass appeal of a program such as the "Beverly Hillsbillies."

"That Was The Week That Was" is an adaptation of a brash English program. The original was so irreverent that it has been discontinued until after the British election at least.

The American program will be live and Jamison expects much of its material will be found in the world of politics.

"Things change so fast you never can be sure what will be usable," Jamison said. "When we did the hour-long show in November, we had a whole section on the Bobby Baker thing that went out."

"We were planning to do a song called 'Nobody's Mad at LBJ' in our opening show next week but now it seems to me a lot of people are furious at him for one thing or another. Maybe we can change the lyrics a little."

"Of course, to do this sort of thing our opinion has to be slanted one way or another—and I don't mean politically slanted, necessarily, just off-beat. The whole purpose of topical humor and satire is to have a point of view that surprises and stimulates. I think that if we were guilty of anything in the first show, it was hitting the reactionaries too strongly. There's just as much funny material about the left wingers that we will be getting at."

Recommended weekend viewing:
Saturday—"The Many Worlds of Jackie Gleason," CBS, special, 7:30-8:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time), saluting the comedian on his 35th show business anniversary, with Art Carney; "The Hollywood Palace," ABC, premier, 9:30-10:30, new variety show with Bing Crosby, Bob Newhart and Mickey Rooney among the guests.

Sunday—"Alumni Fun," CBS, premier, 5:53-6:53 p.m., quiz game; "Meet the Press," NBC, 6-6:30, Sen. Barry Goldwater; "The Problems of the Presidency," NBC, 10-11, news analysis.

Girl Scouts Plan Annual Cookie Sale

"Cookies with a Promise" will be the theme for the 1964 Girl Scout Cookie Sale to be conducted Feb. 7-17 by Scouts of the Seal of Ohio Girl Scout Council.

"Proceeds from cookie sales promise an even better program for girls in the Seal of Ohio Council", Mrs. Harold Fetter, Reynoldsburg, said today.

An estimated 13,000 Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts will sell five different kinds of cookies door-to-door in the Council's ten-county area, according to Mrs. Fetter, chairman of the Council's product sales committee.

The Council includes Girl Scouts in: Pickaway, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Hocking, Highland, Madison, Ross and Union Counties.

Funds realized from the sale help defray troop expenses and provide a sizeable sum for maintenance and improvements of Council-owned and-or operated camps. This year there are 19 such camp sites.

District product sales chairmen and committee members in the Pickaway County area are Mrs. Art Deal, Route 2, Ashville; Mrs. C. E. Anderson, 285 Lewis Road; and Mrs. Allen Black, 925 S. Washington St.

Court Bailiff Beaten, Shot In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Municipal Court Bailiff was shot at and beaten with a rifle Thursday in an attempt to repossess some furniture of an Evanston area man. The man also beat his estranged wife, police said.

The bailiff, Jack O'Leary, 70, was treated at General Hospital for several head cuts. Mrs. Mabel Staegall, 34, was treated for head cuts and a puncture wound on the right hip.

Police arrested the woman's husband, Homer Staegall, 35, on two charges of assault with intent to kill.

Officers said O'Leary, Mrs. Staegall and a loan company representative went to Staegall's home to repossess the furniture, but found the door locked. Mrs. Staegall was along to identify the furniture, they said.

After securing a locksmith to open the door, police said, Staegall, who was inside, chased the trio and attacked O'Leary and Mrs. Staegall. Staegall was arrested a short time later in a neighbor's house, police said.

Today in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

RED ARMY: Seven tons of arms and ammunition captured by South Vietnamese army units in two actions against Communist guerrillas shortly before Christmas were of Red Chinese origin, U.S. officials said today.

KENNEDY COIN: Production of the new Kennedy half dollar probably will begin late this month and public distribution may start on May 29, the late president's birthday anniversary.

This is just an educated guess at this point, however, for no decision has been made yet.

SMOKING STUDY: A report on smoking and health by a special advisory committee will be presented to Surgeon General Luther L. Terry and to the public sometime this month.

The 10 - member group has been at work for more than a year, and the report was first expected last summer.

RAILS: U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Hotzoff will announce within 10 days his decision on a rail union challenge to an arbitration panel's finding in the work rules dispute.

The board said 90 per cent—or about 40,000 — of the firemen's jobs on diesel freight and yard service could be eliminated and that the jobs of some 19,000 other train crew members could be reviewed.

KENNEDY BURIAL: President John F. Kennedy's burial at Arlington National Cemetery has led to a fourfold increase in questions about eligibility for burial at Arlington, cemetery officials report.

In general, members and honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces, their wives or husbands and dependent children may be buried at Arlington. There is no charge, nor is there one for ceremonies at the cemetery.

Rocky Returns To Campaign

New Hampshire Hears Candidate

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York returns to New Hampshire today, convinced that Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona will be his chief opponent for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller is reopening his campaign on the day that Goldwater is to announce in Phoenix, Ariz., whether he, too, will seek the nomination and enter New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation primary on March 10.

A source close to Goldwater said the senator will make the race.

There was little, if any, doubt of it in the Rockefeller camp. Ex-Gov. Hsah Gregg, campaign chairman for Rockefeller in New Hampshire, renewed a challenge Thursday for Goldwater to meet the governor in a series of public debates.

Gregg said he was doing so "on the eve of Sen. Goldwater's long-delayed decision to announce his candidacy."

Rockefeller flies to Portsmouth for a major speech at a public meeting of the Portsmouth Young Republican Club tonight.

After the speech, Rockefeller will go to Concord, the capital, and spend the night. Saturday morning he will make a brief handshaking tour, hold a news conference and then fly to New York City.

Most New Hampshire politicians say they see no evidence that Rockefeller has been the beneficiary of any loss in political strength Goldwater may have suffered after President Kennedy's assassination.

Goldwater, despite a slip in the polls, is still considered the front runner in this state.

Farm Roundup

Ohio Farmer Is Surrounded By Advisers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation says that the American farmer, in one respect, is the most fortunate businessman in the country.

A report issued by the farm organization's Advisory Council—an agency which promotes member discussion of various agricultural and other problems—has this to say:

"Most businesses hire consultants or staff advisers to help answer many of the questions that face the manager and board of directors.

"Farmers have, for the asking, the help of staff specialists. Agronomists, marketing specialists, farm management specialists and experts in the credit field are on the staffs of the universities, the extension service, farm supply companies, banks, production credit and marketing agencies.

"In addition, county agricultural extension personnel and vocational agriculture teachers in each county are available to help interpret the advice of the specialists in a total farm program."

The advice and help of these many agencies and personnel are available without charge. Some are financed by federal, state and county governments and some by private concerns which do business with farmers.

In pointing out the availability of such a wide field of experts, phrased that the role of a well-informed manager is becoming more and more important in farming.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department foresees less favorable prospects for exports of U. S. potatoes during the first half of this year than last.

During the first half of 1963, 1.3 million hundredweight were shipped to Western Europe, an amount substantially above previous years. But a larger European crop during the past season than a year earlier has lowered that continent's export needs.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The production of certified seed potatoes for this year's plantings totaled 38.4 million hundredweight, an increase of 3 per cent over a year ago.

Reporting this today, the Agriculture Department said Maine remained the unchallenged leader with 49 per cent of the total production. Next in line were Idaho with 13 per cent, Minnesota 12, North Dakota 7, and California and Colorado 3 each.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department announced today it has withdrawn soybeans and dry beans from the list of surplus farm commodities it is offering to sell. This action was taken because the government stocks have been cut to very low levels.

Commodities still on the sales list include butter, cheddar cheese, non-fat dry milk, cotton, wheat, corn, oats, barley, rice, grain sorghum, peanuts and flax.

Idle Pay Claims Increase in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported increases in both new and continuing claims during the week ended Dec. 28. Part of the increases were reported due to seasonal changes in the labor picture.

New claims increased from 23,325 in the week ended Dec. 21 to 25,062. Continuing claims of those unemployed one week or more increased from 89,540 to 98,390. In December of last year, there was an average of 22,548 new claims on file each week, while continuing claims then averaged 107,095 each week.

Girl Scouts Plan Annual Cookie Sale

"Cookies with a Promise", will be the theme for the 1964 Girl Scout Cookie Sale to be conducted Feb. 7-17 by Scouts of the Seal of Ohio Girl Scout Council.

"Proceeds from cookie sales promise an even better program for girls in the Seal of Ohio Council", Mrs. Harold Fetter, Reynoldsburg, said today.

An estimated 13,000 Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts will sell five different kinds of cookies door-to-door in the Council's ten-county area, according to Mrs. Fetter, chairman of the Council's product sales committee.

The Council includes Girl Scouts in: Pickaway, Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Hocking, Highland, Madison, Ross and Union Counties.

Funds realized from the sale help defray troop expenses and provide a sizeable sum for maintenance and improvements of Council-owned and-or operated camps. This year there are 19 such camp sites.

District product sales chairmen and committee members in the Pickaway County area are Mrs. Art Deal, Route 2, Ashville; Mrs. C. E. Anderson, 285 Lewis Road; and Mrs. Allen Black, 925 S. Washington St.

Court Bailiff Beaten, Shot In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Municipal Court Bailiff was shot at and beaten with a rifle Thursday in an attempt to repossess some furniture of an Evanston area man. The man also beat his estranged wife, police said.

The bailiff, Jack O'Leary, 70, was treated at General Hospital for several head cuts. Mrs. Mabel Staegall, 34, was treated for head cuts and a puncture wound on the right hip.

Police arrested the woman's husband, Homer Staegall, 35, on two charges of assault with intent to kill.

Officers said O'Leary, Mrs. Staegall and a loan company representative went to Staegall's home to repossess the furniture, but found the door locked. Mrs. Staegall was along to identify the furniture, they said.

After securing a locksmith to open the door, police said, Staegall, who was inside, chased the trio and attacked O'Leary and Mrs. Staegall. Staegall was arrested a short time later in a neighbor's house, police said.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:
RED ARM—Seven tons of arms and ammunition captured by South Vietnamese army units in two actions against Communist guerrillas shortly before Christmas were of Red Chinese origin, U.S. officials said today.

KENNEDY COIN: Production of the new Kennedy half dollar probably will begin late this month and public distribution may start on May 29, the late president's birthday anniversary.
This is just an educated guess at this point, however, for no decision has been made yet.

SMOKING STUDY: A report on smoking and health by a special advisory committee will be presented to Surgeon General Luther L. Terry and to the public sometime this month.
The 10-member group has been at work for more than a year, and the report was first expected last summer.

RAILS: U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Hotzoff will announce within 10 days his decision on a rail union challenge to an arbitration panel's finding in the work rules dispute.

The board said 90 per cent—or about 40,000—of the firemen's jobs on diesel freight and

Cypriots Due For Parley In London

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriots will join in a conference with Britain, Greece and Turkey in London late this month in an effort to end the bloodshed on Cyprus and preserve the island republic.

Archbishop Makarios, Greek Cypriot president of Cyprus, and Dr. Fazil Kutchuk, Turkish Cypriot vice president, agreed Thursday night to send representatives. Their decisions came after a day of intensive diplomatic activity by Britain's on-the-spot mediator, Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys.

Sandys flew back to London for personal report to Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and the British Cabinet.

There will be problems and things may go wrong," Sandys told newsmen in London, "but I think the situation is under control."

He warned of the possibility of more fighting, saying, "there is a large number of irregulars who are not controlled by any of the people who will be sitting around the table."

Exact date of the conference has not been announced. After the opening session, a committee of Greek and Turkish Cypriot representatives will be formed to work with a British chairman on proposals for revising the Cypriot constitution and the treaties linking Britain, Greece and Turkey to the Mediterranean island.

KENNEDY BURIAL: President John F. Kennedy's burial at Arlington National Cemetery has led to a fourfold increase in questions about eligibility for burial at Arlington, cemetery officials report.

In general, members and honorably discharged veterans of the armed forces, their wives or husbands and dependent children may be buried at Arlington. There is no charge, nor is there one for ceremonies at the cemetery.

Rocky Returns To Campaign

New Hampshire Hears Candidate

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York returns to New Hampshire today, convinced that Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona will be his chief opponent for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller is reopening his campaign on the day that Goldwater is to announce in Phoenix, Ariz., whether he, too, will seek the nomination and enter New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation primary on March 10.

A source close to Goldwater said in Phoenix Thursday night the senator will make the race.

There was little, if any, doubt of it in the Rockefeller camp. Ex-Gov. Hsok Gregg, campaign chairman for Rockefeller in New Hampshire, renewed a challenge Thursday for Goldwater to meet the governor in a series of public debates.

Gregg said he was doing so "on the eve of Sen. Goldwater's long-delayed decision to announce his candidacy."

Rockefeller flies to Portsmouth for a major speech at a public meeting of the Portsmouth Young Republican Club tonight.

After the speech, Rockefeller will go to Concord, the capital, and spend the night. Saturday morning he will make a brief handshaking tour, hold a news conference and then fly to New York City.

Most New Hampshire politicians say they see no evidence that Rockefeller has been the beneficiary of any loss in political strength. Goldwater may have suffered after President Kennedy's assassination.

Goldwater, despite a slip in the polls, is still considered the front runner in this state.

Farm Roundup

Ohio Farmer Is Surrounded By Advisers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Ohio Farm Bureau Federation says that the American farmer, in one respect, is the most fortunate businessman in the country.

A report issued by the farm organization's Advisory Council—an agency which promotes member discussion of various agricultural and other problems—has this to say:

"Most businesses hire consultants or staff advisers to help answer many of the questions that face the manager and board of directors."

"Farmers have, for the asking, the help of staff specialists. Agronomists, marketing specialists, farm management specialists and experts in the credit field are on the staffs of the universities, the extension service, farm supply companies, banks, production credit and marketing agencies."

"In addition, county agricultural extension personnel and vocational agriculture teachers in each county are available to help interpret the advice of the specialists in a total farm program."

The advice and help of these many agencies and personnel are available without charge. Some are financed by federal, state and county governments and some by private concerns which do business with farmers.

In pointing out the availability of such a wide field of experts, phasized that the role of a well-informed manager is becoming more and more important in farming.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department foresees less favorable prospects for exports of U. S. potatoes during the first half of this year than last.

During the first half of 1963, 1.3 million hundredweight were shipped to Western Europe, an amount substantially above previous years. But a larger European crop during the past season than a year earlier has lowered that continent's export needs.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The production of certified seed potatoes for this year's plantings totaled 38.4 million hundredweight, an increase of 3 per cent over a year ago.

Reporting this today, the Agriculture Department said Maine remained the unchanged leader with 49 per cent of the total production. Next in line were Idaho with 13 per cent, Minnesota 12, North Dakota 7, and California and Colorado 3 each.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced today it has withdrawn soybeans and dry beans from the list of surplus farm commodities it is offering to sell. This action was taken because the government stocks have been cut to very low levels.

Commodities still on the sales list include butter, cheddar cheese, non-fat dry milk, cotton, wheat, corn, oats, barley, rice, grain sorghum, peanuts and flax.
